The Pittsburgh Gazette.

THE conservatives of the Tioga district are endeavoring to persuade Mr. L. A. MACKEY, of Clinton county, to accept their nomination for Congress, against Mr. S. F. WILSON, republican. The expectation is that if he will stand, the democrats will support him. He is a man of fair abilities and good reputation—hence, as we judge, the last sort of man who would be wheedled into taking such a step. So far as the general result is concerned, it does not matter what he does. Mr. WILSON will be re-elected, and we shall not wonder if his majority is increased over what it was two years ago.

THE Rogue's Progress is illustrated in the case of the New York Times. When SHERMAN accepted the capitulation of JOHNSON on terms which restored the rebel States to full power, it indulged in a storm of indignation. Three months ago it got so far as to want loyal representatives admitted from the Southern States. Now, it insists all representatives shall be admitted who come duly accredited. It has only one step more to take, and that is to exclude all representatives who are not satisfactory to MOSEBY and DICK TAYLOR.

NORTHUMBERLAND is excellent for situation. It reposes on a delta at the forks of the Susquehanna. The hills on either hand stand back respectfully, and the lookout in every direction is superb. With all these advantages Northumberland has not flourished. It wears the aspect of having gone to seed before it blossomed. Now, its citizens have hopes of a revival. The foundations of a mammoth rolling mill are being laid. Who can tell of how many it may prove the precursor?

THE Philadelphia Convention has produced one legitimate result—it has increased the market value of Confederate bonds in London. The money barons of Europe comprehend what the President's Policy really means. Restore the rebels to power in the government, and why should not their bonds appreciate? The only sure thing is to pass the Congressional Amendment. That makes a finish of the rebel debts.

GEN. SHERIDAN says distinctly that the issue is on trial whether northern men shall be permitted to remain in New Orleans in peace and security, and that it will be decided against them unless the recent crimes shall be rigidly prosecuted and punished. The whole course of the President [illegible] screening the offenders. He even [illegible] and of his disapprobation on the [illegible] for telling the whole truth.

LAST year President Johnson, because he had resolved to betray the republican party, prohibited the usual collections from office holders in support of the canvass. He put his prohibition on the high ground of public virtue. This year, having accomplished the betrayal, he enforces collections from office holders to support the democrats. His scruples about public virtue have vanished.

AT New York, where President Johnson was received by men of all parties, he took occasion to denounce nineteen twentieths of the men by whom he was elected as "northern traitors," and to declare that he meant to fight them to the end. If the republicans of Allegheny see proper to expose themselves to such insults, by all means let them "Honor the President," when he comes.

THE Republicans of Armstrong county hold a mass meeting at Kittanning to-morrow. Excursion tickets will be issued by the Allegheny Valley Railroad Company, at Pittsburgh, Freeport, Kiskiminitis, &c. An extra train will leave Mahoning for Kittanning at 11:30 A. M. Returning will leave Kittanning at 10 P. M.

IN the recent Democratic Nominating Convention for Berks county, Mr. Clymer and his set were baffled at all points. None of his friends succeeded in getting on the ticket. The candidates for Assembly are not in his interest, and when he fails in the gubernatorial contest, they will not support him for United States Senator.

THE game of brag was never played more audaciously than in the claim set up by the conservatives that they can endanger the success of Mr. JOHN M. BROOMALL in the Chester and Delaware district. He is as certain of re-election as Mr. THADDEUS STEVENS.

THE canvass in Indiana is progressing with great spirit on both sides. On the Republican side the energy is unprecedented. The President's Policy has only served to stimulate to fresh exertions; and no doubt is entertained of a propitious result.

IT is stated that the President had a mind to back out of the Chicago trip, but was overruled by Mr. SEWARD. Very like the President would back out of many of his foolish projects if Mr. SEWARD would cease his malign influence.

ON Wednesday evening a Mass Meeting will be held at Philadelphia, in front of the Union League House, on Broad street, in honor to the Southern Union Convention, who will then have completed their labors.

THE New York Tribune gives a full review of the political situation in that State, and confidently expresses the opinion that the Republicans will maintain their ascendancy and without diminution on the popular vote.

THE speeches of the President, since his departure from Washington, have been of such a character as to create an agitation in Chicago favorable to the postponement of the Douglas Monument ceremonies.

THE President is charged with needlessly delaying the payment of bounties voted by Congress at the last session, under the plea that sufficient moneys were not appropriated.

C. BURNETT, Esq., of Stroudsburg, has been nominated on the part of the Democrats of Monroe county for the State Senate. It is understood that pretensions will be urged from Carbon county.

THE Democrats of the 13th district have given the Hon. WM. ELLWELL the job of being beaten for Congress by Mr. MERCUR, the Republican candidate.

THE Board of Health of Philadelphia have presented the water furnished by the Delaware Water Company, as a nuisance prejudicial to health.

THE New Jersey Legislature will meet on the 10th inst. to ratify the Constitutional Amendment and to select a United States Senator.

ALLEN BILLIG has been tried at Mercer for the murder of Ephraim Boger, and acquitted.

Pure North Carolina Tar.

In Barrels, Half Barrels and Kegs, can be had at FLEMING'S DRUG STORE, No. 84 Market street, at lowest rates; also Turpentine, Rosin, Oils and Varnishes.

Remember that the Tar is the genuine Southern article, and can be had cheaper of Fleming than elsewhere in the city.

Iron City College.

I regard my investment at the Iron City College as the best piece of financiering I ever did; and I think it would be time and money well spent for every young man to pursue a course there. The system of instruction is eminently practical—just what it should be—and I am free to acknowledge that I am deeply indebted for the success I have had in my present position, to the admiral system of Practical Banking there taught.

Philadelphia University of Medicine and Surgery.

The trustees and faculty of the above Medical College have issued "scholarships" at seventy-five dollars each, which entitles the holders to attend lectures until graduation or as many sessions as he wishes.

This renders a medical education cheaper than ever proposed by any University or College in this country or Europe, possessing the same extensive facilities.

There are sixteen Professors and every branch of Medicine and Surgery is thoroughly taught.

The student holding a "scholarship" can enter the college at any time during the Lectures, attend as long as he wishes, and re-enter the Institution as frequently as desired.

Persons wishing to obtain scholarships can apply to L. Oldshue, M. D., Professor of Urino Pathology in the above-mentioned College. His office and residence is No. 132 Grant street, Pittsburgh Pa.

The Reasons Why Hostetter's Stomach Bitters Should Have a Place in Every Home.

Because by invigorating the constitution and the frame they avert sickness.

Because (especially) their use prevents the atmospheric poison which produces epidemics from taking effect upon the system.

Because they cure indigestion, and impart unwonted vigor to the stomach.

Because they are the best appetising medicine at present known.

Because they are the only preparation upon which persons of a bilious habit can safely rely to keep the liver in good order.

Because they tone and regulate the bowels, and invariably relieve them when constipated, without causing undue relaxation.

Because they strengthen the nerves, clear the brain, and cheer the animal spirits.

Because in case of an attack of spasms or bilious colic they are the best thing that can be administered on the instant.

Because they combine the three properties of a tonic, an alterative and a nervine in their utmost purity and perfection.

Because they are a specific against Ague and Fever and all intermittents, and with all their potency as a preservative and a remedy, are as harmless as water from the mountain spring!

The Southern Unionists' Convention—Order of Proceedings.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 1.—The delegates to the Southern Loyalists Convention are rapidly arriving in this city. About six hundred delegates had registered their names at the Union League up to to-night.

The following order of proceedings was issued this afternoon:

The Southern delegates will meet at the rooms of the National Union Club, No. 105 Chestnut street, at half-past nine o'clock A. M., and proceed from the entrance to Independence Hall.

The northern conference delegates will meet at Independence Hall at half-past nine o'clock A. M.

All delegates will be escorted from Independence Hall to the Union League House, according to the order issued by General Sickles, Chief Marshal, where they will be received and welcomed by Charles Gibbons, Chairman Committee of Reception on behalf of the League. After the address of welcome and the reply, the Southern delegates will be escorted to the National Hall where the escort will be dismissed.

To prevent confusion no person will be admitted to the Convention on Monday, as members thereof, except the delegates from the Southern States.

The conference delegates, appointed by the Governors of the Northern States, or otherwise duly authorized to represent them in Convention, will meet at the Union League House at one o'clock on Monday, for temporary organization.

The two bodies will be united in national convention at such time as the loyal Unionists of the South may designate. The union will take place in front of the Union League House in the presence of the people, of which due notice will be given.

The Presidential Party at Niagara—The President and Secretary Seward Address the People—Ball in Honor of the Occasion.

NIAGARA, Sept. 1.—The President and suite arrived at Niagara at 4:20. Calls were made and he appeared on the balcony of the International Hotel, and after some remarks by Mr. A. Porter, he addressed the crowd at length. He referred to his own sacrifices and the perils through which he had passed to the gradations by which he had reached his present eminence. Some one, he said, had called him a traitor. He asked what principle or particle of the Baltimore Platform he had violated. At the conclusion of his remarks Secretary Seward was called on and made a few remarks, in which he said Mr. Lincoln had many traducers, and that if President Johnson should be suddenly removed the purity of his purposes would be equally manifest. He defended himself from the charge of having deserted the Baltimore Platform, and closed amid loud cheering.

A ball is now in progress in honor of the occasion.

Judge Abel Defines His Position—His Letter is Addressed to General Sheridan.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 1.—Judge Abel addressed a letter to General Sheridan, through the New Orleans papers, defending himself against the charge of being a dangerous man. He says that in his judicial station he knows naught but fidelity to the State, and humanity to the unfortunate, regardless of color; if dangerous, that he is a most unsuccessful agitator; for until the assembling of the would-be convention on the 30th ult., the civil courts of the State faithfully administered the laws, and as effectually preserved the peace as in any city in the Union, the disbanding of two armies and a large influx of negroes notwithstanding. He firmly believes that not a drop of blood would have been shed had the military been half as earnest as he in opposing the attempted usurpation. He says that since the re-establishment of the civil authority in Louisiana, the status of Northern men has been one of perfect safety. He tells Sheridan if he thinks the assertion correct, to rejoice in it; but among good men he thinks it will not add to his reputation.

Shipping at the Society Islands—Unsuccessful Attack of Indians Upon a Train—Treasure From Oregon—Whaling News &c.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 1.—The Brig Marie, thirty-eight days from Society Islands, reports four vessels of the Spanish fleet still in the harbor. Papeete receiving coal from the British ship Meteor. American steamer "Uncle Sam," is lying in the same harbor.

An Arizona paper of August 23d states, one hundred Indians attacked a train of eleven persons, near La Paz. After fighting for three hours the savages returned, leaving twenty-three of their number dead.

The steamer Oriflamme, from Portland, and steamer Active, from Victoria, bringing jointly, 252,400 dollars have arrived. The barque Gustave Picard, of Bordeaux, whaling barque Mary and Susan, of New Brunswick, were spoken August 3d, with [illegible] barrels of sperm oil, this season.

Internal Revenue Stamps for Malt Liquors.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—The new Internal Revenue stamps required to be placed on all malt liquors, were issued to-day. The designs are very neat—about 1½ inches in diameter, and contains the words "United States Internal Revenue Stamp," and the words one-eighth or one-quarter barrel as the case may be. They are intended to be placed over the spigot holes, and will be cancelled by driving in the spigot. The stamps are of the following denominations: for one barrel, $1,00; half barrel, fifty cents; quarter barrel, twenty-five cents.

LONDON, August 30.—The exchange of the ratifications of the Austro-Prussian treaty took place to-day at Prague.

MOSCOW, August 30.—A deputation of Russian peasants have called on Mr. Fox and extended to him congratulations in the name of the whole peasantry of Russia. Mr. Fox presented them with a United States flag, and M. Grosden, on receiving it, said that in case of necessity Russia would unfurl her banner by the side of that of the great republic.

LONDON, Saturday, Sept. 1.—The threatened raid by the Fenians into Canada has received serious notice on the part of the British Government, who are taking active precautionary measures. Three batteries of artillery have lately been sent to Quebec.

LIVERPOOL, Saturday, Sept. 1—Noon.—The Royal Mail steamship China sailed to-day for Halifax and Boston, with £153,000 in gold for the United States.

BREST, Saturday, Sept. 1.—The Transatlantic Company's steamer Periere sailed to-day for New York. Among her passengers was Madame Ristori, the great tragedienne, and a theatrical company of forty-five persons.

PARIS, Saturday, Sept. 1.—The Emperor Napoleon, in a letter written to King Victor Emanuel on the 11th of August, rejoices that the era of peace has returned. He says he accepted the cession of Venetia from Austria in order that the people of that country might be enabled to choose their own destiny. France, the Emperor adds, has exerted her influence in favor of humanity, the best interests of the people of Venetia, and of Italy.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 1.—The Russian government, prior to the negotiation of peace, professed to the French Emperor and the other powers, that neutrals should participate in the territorial changes occasioned by the results of the war. The proposition was not supported by France or England, and the Czar refrained from officially moving in the matter, reserving, however, liberty of action to himself in the future.

PRAGUE, Saturday, September 1.—The terms of peace between Austria and Italy are in rapid progress toward settlement, and it is generally believed that peace will be fully and finally consummated between these powers in ten days.

LONDON, Saturday Evening, September 1.—The London Times to-day, in view of the questions arising between England and America, growing out of the recent war in the United States and the more recent raid, by the Fenians, into Canada, urges the British Government to take into serious consideration the feasibility, if not the necessity, of so extending the provisions of the neutrality laws as to hold the different governments to a strict liability for all acts in violation of that law committed by the subjects of each.

PARIS, Sept. 2.—M. Drouyn De L'Huys, the French Minister for foreign affairs, has resigned. The Marquis of Montholon succeeds him.

BERLIN, Saturday Night, Sept. 1.—The Prussian Diet is engaged in the discussion of the bill to indemnify the King for his violation of the Constitution in imposing taxes and raising funds for the support of the war without the consent of Parliament.

BERLIN, August 31st—Evening.—The Grand Duke of Darmstadt refuses the Prussian treaty. Upper Hesse is likely to be annexed to Prussia.

MUNICH, August 31.—Evening.—The motion to close the union of Bavaria with Prussia was lost. The Chambers then adjourned, and will probably meet again in October.

VIENNA, August 31.—The formalities of the cession of Venetia have been ended. The Austrians are to leave Venice and the Quadrilateral on the 5th of September.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 31.—The Journal of to-day says that the mission of Manteufel, caused by the proposal of Russia to the neutral powers that they participate in the territorial changes of Germany, has been ended. This proposal was not approved.

Russia refrained from a further decision, but reserved liberty of action.

Commercial

LIVERPOOL, Saturday, Sept. 1—Noon.—The Cotton market is dull, and prices have declined ¼ of a penny per pound. The sales are estimated at 9,000 bales. Middling uplands are quoted at 13¼d. Breadstuffs dull and unchanged. Provisions unchanged.

LONDON, Saturday, Sept. 1—Noon.—The Money market is unchanged. Consols 89¾ for money. The market for American securities is steady. The quotations are: United States Five-Twenties, 73¼; Erie, 46; Illinois Central, 81.

LIVERPOOL, September 1.—The cotton market is dull, with sales to-day of seven thousand bales of middling uplands, at the close, at 13¼d. The breadstuff market is generally unchanged. Corn is steady; mixed western 26s 6d per quarter. The provision market is generally firmer, with a slightly upward tendency.

LONDON, September 1.—Consols closed this evening at 89¾ for money. American securities have ruled steady. The closing quotations are as follows: U. S. 5-20s, 73¼; Erie Railway, 46½; Illinois Central, 79¾.

Orders Relating to Ex-Governor Wise's Property.

FORT MONROE, Aug. 31.—A nephew of the rebel General Wise arrived here yesterday morning from Richmond with an order from Mayor General Schofield, commanding that Department authorizing him to receive all property that could be found in the Department belonging to Wise, now being used by the officers of the Government. Quite a large amount of furniture and other household goods was found hereabouts, and their possessors despoiled of them in a hasty and rather unceremonious manner. The goods were stored here preparatory to being turned over to the Ex-Governor.

Col. Sickles' Welcome to the Presidential Party.

MEDINA, N. Y., Sept. 1.—Colonel H. E. Sickles extended the hospitalities to the President as a man who so well illustrated our institutions; one of the faithful few who yielded not when the tide of treason swept over the South, and who stood now as he always stood—devoted to the Union and the Constitution. Every place, he said, you tread, becomes historical ground. We are proud our village is thus honored.

The President briefly returned his thanks, saying that he could give no other indication of his future course than what were to be found in his previous declarations and official acts.

Arrival of Delegates at Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 1.—Among the more prominent of delegates who arrived are the following: Ex-Attorney General Speed, Kentucky; Gov. Fletcher, Missouri; Ex-Gov. Hamilton, Texas; Gov. Boreman, West Virginia; Gov. Brownlow, Tennessee; Gov. Fairchild, Wisconsin; Gov. Crago, Michigan; Senators Harris, New York; Lane, Indiana; Creswell, Maryland; Congressmen Frank Thomas, Maryland; Paine, Wisconsin; John Minor Botts, Virginia; Mr. Clayton, Delaware, &c. Attorney General Speed and Governor Fletcher are spoken of for presiding officers. The choice will probably fall on Speed.

HONOR TO A SOUTHERN LOYALIST.

Reception of Mr. Durant, of New Orleans, by the Philadelphia Union League.

PHILADELPHIA, August 31.—A grand reception was given to-night, at the Union League Club House, to T. J. Durant, of New Orleans, Governor Hamilton, of Texas, and Governor Brownlow, of Tennessee. Hon. William D. Kelly presided. Broad street in front of the League House was crowded, and the reception in every way was enthusiastic. The League House was illuminated on the portico with brilliant jets of gas lights. Mr. Durant was introduced by Judge Kelly, and made an address, in which he said that we had passed through one of the most fearful rebellions recorded in history. He referred in detail to the action of the Legislatures of the South, and particularly of New Orleans. He alluded, at length, to the session of the Convention of the 30th of July, and the causes which produced that horrid result, and of the remedy which, in his judgment, ought to be provided to prevent its repetition. When the flag of the Union once more greeted the Union men of New Orleans, we hailed it as the harbinger of safety—as the flag of freedom. Time passed on, and the military chieftain who had been appointed by the late lamented President was removed, and another substituted in his place; to whom it seemed good to call together a Convention of that portion of the people of Louisiana residing in New Orleans and the surrounding parishes, for the purpose of framing a Constitution and forming a Government under which it was hoped that Louisiana might ultimately be admitted to her original position as a sister State of the Union.

He entered at length in an explanation of the organization of the Constitutional Convention recently held at New Orleans. When that Convention adjourned it had done so with a resolution authorizing the present President, under certain circumstances specified therein, to call the Convention together when the emergency arose for which the resolution specially provided. That was the cause, the motive, and the origin of the reconvocation of the Convention, which was made the pretext for the wholesale slaughter of Union men in New Orleans.

Mr. Durant entered into a description of the riots at New Orleans and the killing of Dr. Dostie by the ruffian band of police under the control of the Mayor of that city, and spoke of the indignities inflicted upon Ex-Governor Hahn at the capital city of the State of which he was once Governor. He added that no meeting of the respectable citizens of New Orleans has yet been held to denounce those most atrocious murders. He would not permit himself to believe that there is less sympathy evinced for the sufferers because the greater part of them were men of African descent. (Cries of "No," "No.")

He asked what remedies are there for these acts? The unfortunate men whose circumstances permit them are flying from their homes in the South to seek refuge and hospitalities and the freedom of voting and of discussion here in the North. How long is it before the loyal people of the Union will give the south a Government where opinion is free—where every man shall have the right to express his sentiments in vote and in words; where he shall have the privilege of communicating, in every respectful way, what he thinks and what he has to say? Do you not know that now the liberty of speech and the liberty of the press is dead in New Orleans, and that American citizens were slaughtered in the streets of New Orleans, under the American flag, without provocation? There is no liberty of discussion unless you discuss the merits of the President's policy. Unless you sustain the principles of universal suffrage there can be no peace in this country. [Loud applause.] Citizens of Pennsylvania, you have sustained the loyalists by the ballot. Be true to yourselves as were the soldiers of the Republic, and the men who were slaughtered in the streets of New Orleans will yet be avenged. You can do so by retaining power in the legislative portion of our Government.

At the conclusion of Mr. Durant's speech great cries for Brownlow were given. "Let us see the old man," cried a voice, and the Governor mounted a chair.

Gentlemen—I came out of my lodgings as I live close to this place, to hear the distinguished citizen of New Orleans. I had known of Andrew Jackson, the Hero of New Orleans, and I wanted to hear of the Nero of New Orleans. (Cheers.)

I came in to-day at the head of fifty loyal Tennesseeans—fifteen or twenty of us members of a "bogus Legislature" there, and all of us, as President Johnson's organ says, "low whites and poor sneaks." We shall not caucus to keep harmony in our Convention. We will not muzzle them, but will turn them loose. There are about fifteen others of us who have heard Johnson declare Douglas a corrupt man who tried to break up the Democratic party.

But perhaps you are saying I nominated him to the Presidency. Well, I am here to repent of my sins, and, my God having forgiven me, I trust you will. Far better if I and the others had been in Libby Prison instead of the Baltimore Convention. The signs at the South are not favorable; the rebels are trying to bring on another war. ["What are the prospects of the negroes there?" a voice cried.] The same as the "low whites and poor sneaks," none having a chance under Andy Johnson.

We of Tennessee are harmonious; prepared to endorse Congress from beginning to end. We will not endorse Andrew Johnson, or his impious policy, at home or abroad. The present Congress is the most patriotic body in the world. It has never been excelled by any other except by the present Legislature of Tennessee. (Laughter.)

Gov. Andrew Jackson Hamilton, of Texas, being loudly called for, said:

Pennsylvanians—I endorse what the last distinguished man has said judging from what I know. I say you must prepare your minds and your hearts, and, perhaps, your arm, to support the integrity and purity of your land and your Union. Day after day you are told that if the policy of Congress is endorsed, and the rebel representatives of the South are excluded, you will have civil war. Are you told this when your loyal men have fought and put down the rebellion that you must sustain his policy—I beg pardon he has no policy, but his plot—or another rebellion will be instigated?

Are you ready to bow to such a threat? If so, you are not free men. I believe you will never bow to it. What does the President wish to do? Nothing, unless to secure the power of the South to the rebel adherents.

If we are to have another conflict, after the last sad one, I think we may declare we have already proven who are the loyal men, North and South. And, as Union Republicans, are we to deny a portion of our loyal men at the South? [No.]

Then I have to declare that, however unpopular it may be, I am in favor of enfranchising the loyal black man of the South. [Great applause.] He has proved his manhood, his integrity, his bravery. In your State alone, when you staggered beneath the loss of many you had given to the battle-field, eight thousand six hundred and twelve loyal black men sprang forward to your salvation in your hour of deadly need. You cannot, in your manly freedom, deny his rights of manhood. [Cheers.]

You must declare this land free to all true manhood. Let us do justice though the heavens fall, and then we may claim the justice of a great God.

A Young Man Breaks his Leg in an Attempt to Shake Hands with General Grant

AUBURN, N. Y., September 1.—Yesterday, on the arrival of the President's party at this city, a son of Mr. Richardson rushed toward the carriage to shake hands with Gen. Grant, but in his effort to do so, fell under the wheel, thereby shattering his leg. He was conveyed to his home last night. He sent word to Secretary Seward that he was anxious to see General Grant. The latter, affected by the circumstances as related by the Secretary, last night, at eleven o'clock, attended by Surgeon General Barnes, called at the house of the sufferer, and on parting told the youth when he recovered to write him a line, and he might be of use to him.

The Presidential Party

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 1, 10 P. M.—The President and party had a reception this evening at Niagara Falls, and to-night they are attending a grand ball at the International Hotel. They remain at the Falls over Sunday and come to Buffalo on Monday morning and have a public reception, and remain here until evening, when they leave for the West.

BROCKPORT, 11.5 P. M., Sept. 1.—Notwithstanding the rain, a very large concourse of people greeted the President and party.

The Rochester Reception.

ROCHESTER, Sept. 1.—The Mayor of Rochester met the Presidential party at the train, and tendered him the hospitalities of the city without reference to the policy he was pursuing. The President stated that demonstrations like this inspires me with confidence, and encourages me in the policy which I have pursued for the preservation of the Union, and the vindication of the Constitution of the United States.

Loss of the Nassau Bank.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—The President of the Nassau Bank, in a card, states that the Paying Teller's—Mr. Briggs—defalcation amounts to one hundred and sixty-one thousand dollars, but owing to the securities, the Bank holds that their loss will be less than fifty thousand dollars. The surplus of the bank is over two hundred thousand dollars.

Presidential Party at Albion.

ALBION, Sept. 1.—The train here halted for fifteen minutes, when Hon. Sanford E. Church extended a cordial welcome to the President. The President briefly responded. The other distinguished excursionists were introduced and received the welcome of all beholders. Notwithstanding the rain a large number of persons were assembled at this place.

Cotton Crop in Western Texas.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 1.—In Texas, west of the Colorado, the cotton crop is small in extent, but good in quantity and quality. So far the damage in the South by the worm is partial, but drought in one direction and rains in others is generally complained of.

Receipts from Internal Revenue.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—The receipts from Internal Revenue to-day were $2,700,905 19; the receipts for the week ending to-day were $10,285,831 63, and the total receipts for the month of August were $38,013 340 81.

HOTELS CROWDED—PRAYER MEETINGS, &c., &c.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

PHILADELPHIA, September 2, 1866.

All of the hotels are full to overflowing. Every Southern State is fully represented by intensely radical Republicans. There is held to-night at Union Headquarters, a national prayer meeting, which is very largely attended by Southern and Northern Loyalists.

Our train left Pittsburgh, at four o'clock on Saturday afternoon. When at Mt. Joy, the engine ran over a horse, by which the train was thrown from the track and delayed for several hours.

There is a great deal of excitement and enthusiasm in the city. The Convention will be much larger than that held in August, and will be much more largely represented. The delegates are holding caucuses. The Allegheny delegates will parade to-morrow morning. Every district in Tennessee is represented, led by Governor Brownlow. His delegation numbers one hundred.

After the assembling of the Southern Loyalist's Convention, a Convention of Northerners and Southerners will be held.

The New York trains to-day brought down four hundred delegates, including Senators Wilson, and Sprague, Theo. Tilton, Chief Justice Chase, Generals Butler, Hawley and Burnsides. The National Union Convention have prepared a strong appeal to the loyal people of the country, urging them to beware how they sacrifice the fruits of the war. It will be published to-morrow.

Governor Hamilton Chosen to Reply to Mr. Gibbons—Governor Fletcher to act as Temporary Chairman, and Attorney General Speed as Permanent President—Order of Proceedings—Arrival of Delegates, &c., &c.

PHILADELPHIA, September 2.—At a meeting of the Southern delegates, held at the National Union Club House last evening, Governor Fletcher, of Missouri, acted as Chairman, and Dr. Hawkins, of Tennessee, as Secretary. A committee was appointed to designate the speaker to make the address in reply to the welcome speech of Charles Gibbons, Esq., on behalf of the Union men of the north. Gov. Hamilton, of Texas, was chosen for that purpose. Governor Fletcher will probably act as temporary Chairman of the Convention, and ex-Attorney General Speed be chosen as permanent President.

The Southern delegates will meet at half past nine o'clock, to-morrow morning, at the club rooms of the National Union Club, thence escorted to Independence Hall, and thence to the Union League, where they will be formally received. The members will then proceed to National Hall, where the Southern Loyalists will convene.

Among the distinguished persons who have arrived are Governor Fairchild, of Wisconsin; Governor Fletcher, of Missouri; John Minor Botts and Senators Wade, Chandler, Harris and Lane.

A number of delegates are arriving to-night.

A special meeting of the City Councils has been called for to-morrow, to tender the hospitalities of the city to the delegates to the Convention.

Religious Meeting of Delegates

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—A religious prayer meeting and conference of delegates was held to-night in the rooms of Union State Central Committee on Chestnut street. The parlors which were capable of holding about one hundred persons were crowded.

Senator Harris, of New York, opened the proceedings with a few appropriate remarks. He said that they had assembled in this city from various parts of the country to attend a Convention, the results of which might affect essentially, if not vitally, the welfare of this distracted country. It was, therefore, appropriate that, on this evening of the Christian Sabbath, they should meet together and commend that country to God, who had so signally favored the country in trials through which it had passed, and plead with God that as the country was now entering on unexpected trials it would not be deserted by him. He closed by announcing that prayer would now be offered by Rev. Dr. Newman, of Louisiana. Dr. Newman, after reading a portion of the scripture, offered up prayer, asking among other things, that men should be assigned to rule over the country who would be void of pride, and egotism, and ambition, and particularity of partisan prejudices.

After the prayer, Senator Harris in view of the fact that those present were personally strangers to each other, gave a general invitation to such as desired, to address the meeting.

Mr. Eaton, of Memphis, was the first to respond to the invitation. His principal idea was the individual responsibility of man to God, irrespective of all intermediate obstacles whether of the government or the church. The church in the South he said had been the soul and conscience of the rebellion, and the clergy there were still busy making the same arguments as they did before the war, and teaching that the negro was lower than man.

Rev. Mr. Conway, of New York, late Assistant Commissioner in the Freedmen's Bureau, next followed with prayer, in which he asked wisdom for the rulers of the country, especially for the President of the United States, that he should be prevented from doing mischief, and taught to do right; that his heart should be softened with the spirit of love, and turned from the error of his ways and made a righteous magistrate, that he would not be afraid to meet his God. There was a fervent Amen.

He also asked a blessing on the President's advisers, for he feared that many of them were going astray. He would not pray for vengeance, but for justice and mercy. Still if judgment was necessary, let the nation be scourged.

Senator Lane, of Indiana, was the next speaker. He said if the Government were to be saved it would be saved by the interference of Providence and by the action of the noblest populace that ever inhabited God's footstool. Their Politicians were, in the main faithful, honest and true. For himself and his household, they would be found standing on the great platform enunciated in the Declaration of Independence and in the Sermon on the Mount, that grand utterance which was yet to redeem a world that now lay in sin.

Mr. Strong, of St. Louis, and Mr. Maynard, member of Congress from Tennessee, briefly addressed the meeting, after which Lieut. Gov. Gross, of Illinois, led the meeting in prayer when Rev. Mr. Conway added something which had not occurred to him before.

Mr. Mullins, of the Tennessee Legislature next addressed the meeting in rather an incoherent style. False prophets, he said, were crying, "Peace, peace, when there was no peace," when brethren were being slaughtered in the South day after day, and hour after hour, the Convention legally assembled, were being dispersed, and the streets of Memphis were being made to run with the blood of the only loyal men left there. Even recently in the neighboring State of Maryland, men of God, kneeling at the altar, were slaughtered by ruffian hands, led on by that same wild spirit evoked by the institution of slavery. He acknowledged that the country owed much to the newspaper press, notwithstanding the signal defection of those clerical teachers to whom they had looked in past times with deference and respect for government. He was followed by Rev. Dr. Newman, of New Orleans, who remarked that this was the first occasion in the history of the country when a great political convention was preceded by a prayer meeting. The fact was the more interesting, as the meeting had been improvised, and not preconcerted. He believed in his heart of hearts, that this was a religious struggle. He had lived long enough in the South to know that all the great principles of religious liberty were involved; those who do preach christianity in the South with simplicity and power, are marked men, to be shot, stabbed or clubbed. Whenever a church was built, then dedicated to God and to loyalty, that church was subjected to the match of disloyalty, rebellion and slavery. His brethren in churches which he had built had been shot down, and now slept in martyrdom. In the struggle in which they were engaged they must be successful, or religious liberty would go down in the South. He deeply regretted to say that those who were in power favored the restriction of religious speech. The man who had the greatest power in the country said to himself, you and your brethren are not wanted. That individual was now exercising a potent influence for evil in the land; but he believed that God was selecting the sheep from the goats; was drawing the line of demarcation; was testing the line of Gilead, and those whom he addressed were the chosen band. He prayed that they might live to see the day when the great principles which they cherished should be universally triumphant.

Mr. Palmer, of Tennessee, was the next speaker. He denounced the President as a public disgrace and an outrage to the decency of the nation, as a man who feared not, and respected not the institutions of the country.

Mr. Tucker, of North Carolina; Rev. A. W. Hammont, of Virginia, and Mr. Winder, of Tennessee, followed.

The proceedings closed with prayer by Mr. Eaton, of Tennessee.

Rhode Island Delegates to the Convention.

PROVIDENCE, Sept. 2.—Most of the delegates from this State to the Philadelphia Convention of Southern Unionists have gone. Letters cordially approving and sympathizing with the movement, and regretting their inability to attend, have been received from the Rev. Dr. Sears, President of Brown University, Hon. Nathan F. Dixon, Hon. J. J. Reynold, and Mr. Binney.

Ex-Governor Smith sends to the State Committee the following letter:

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 31, 1866.—SIR—Your note of the 29th was received yesterday. Believing that delegates to the August General Convention should be chosen by the people at meetings called for that purpose, and not by a committee who were chosen for other purposes, and for other reasons satisfactory to myself, I respectfully decline serving as a delegate in the Convention to be held in Philadelphia on the 3d proximo. Truly, (Signed) JAMES Y. SMITH.

Baltimore Delegates to the Convention.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 2.—The Maryland delegation to the Convention leave to-night for Philadelphia.

Arrival of the Steamer Hibernian from Europe.

FARTHER POINT, September 2.—The steamship Hibernian, from Liverpool, August 23d, via Londonderry, August 24th, passed here at 9 o'clock P. M.

The London Times' city article says that about a quarter of a million sterling in gold has been purchased during the week for transmission to New York. As an exchange operation, however it would not pay. The movement is caused simply by large purchases of United States bonds on Germanic account, and the transmission of gold is but a consequence of the difficulty of negotiating bills.

Satterthwaite's Circular of the evening of the 22d, says that during the week the transactions in American securities have been of considerable magnitude. Large shipments of Five-Twenties have been well taken for Continental account, and with a simultaneous home demand an advance of four per cent. has been established.

Arrived from Cleveland on the 22d, the Thermutis, at Liverpool.

LIVERPOOL, August 23.—BREADSTUFFS—Messrs. Richardson, Spence & Company, and Jump & Co., report Flour nominally easier. Wheat dull. Corn quiet and steady, mixed 28s 6d@29s 3d. Provisions: Beef dull. Pork quiet and steady. Bacon firm. Lard quiet but firm, at 57s 6d@58s for American. Tallow firm. Produce—Ashes quiet. Sugar quiet but firm. Coffee steady. Rice dull. Rosin inactive. Spirits of Turpentine quiet and steady. Petroleum inactive at 1s 10d. for refined.

LONDON MARKETS.—Breadstuffs are inactive. Sugar tending upward. Coffee is active and firm. Tea and Rice firm. Tallow firm and tending upward.

LATEST VIA LONDONDERRY.—Liverpool, Aug. 24.—Cotton: The Brokers' circular reports the sales of the week at 60,000 bales, including 2,000 to speculators and 21,000 to exporters. The market is quiet and unchanged for American, and ⅛d higher for other descriptions. The authorized quotations are: Fair Orleans, 16d; medium Orleans, 14½d; fair Mobile, 15½d; medium Mobile, 14; fair uplands, 15½d; medium uplands, 13½d. The sales to-day (Friday,) amount to 12,000 bales, including 4,000 to speculators and exporters, the market closing steady. The stock in port is estimated at 966,000 bales, of which 325,000 are American.

The bullion in the Bank of England has increased this week to 640,000 pounds.

No New National Banks Last Week—Amount of Money Issued to Banks for the Week.

WASHINGTON, September 1.—No new National Banks were organized during the week. The Acting Comptroller issued to National Banks $94,735 in national bank notes, making the total sum issued up to the present date, $299,915,585. The United States Bonds held by Treasurer Spinner in trust for National Banks to-day amounted as follows: As security for circulating notes, $330,729,500; as security for public deposits, $38,777,000. Total, 369,507,200. The printing division of the Treasury Department, for the week ending to-day, turned out the following amounts of fractional currency: Fifty cent notes, $162,000; twenty-five cent notes, $129,500; ten cent notes, $31,000. Total, $322,500.

The shipments by the United States Treasurer were as follows: To the Assistant Treasurer at Philadelphia, $40,000, and to national banks and individuals throughout the country, $[illegible]. Mutilated currency to the amount of $[illegible] was redeemed during the week. The receipts from Internal Revenue during the week ending to-day, were $10,285,583. The amount received from this source during the month of August was $38,053,340, being the largest return for any one month since the law went into operation. The total sum received since July, the commencement of the present fiscal year up to date, is $67,822,449.

The State Department has concluded a bargain with the Trustees of the Washington City Orphan Asylum for the occupation of the asylum building on Fourteenth street, at $15,000 per annum for two years, with the privilege of four. It is not expected that the old state building will be fully vacated before the first of November, when the work of demolition will at once be commenced preparatory to the erection on the site the next wing of the Treasury building.

The President and Party at the Niagara Falls

NIAGARA FALLS, Sept. 2.—The President and party rode out to-day to see the falls. The President, in company with Secretaries Seward and Wells, spent some time on the American side of the falls, and afterwards went as far as the Suspension bridge but did not cross over it.

Strangers are here from nearly all the States, the west being the most largely represented. Some of them want the President to extend his journey farther than is arranged on the programme, but, as yet, he has given no promise. He is suffering from hoarseness, owing to frequent and loud speaking, but in other respects he is in good health.

There will be an unusually large out-pouring of the people of Buffalo, for which city we will leave to-morrow.

A large number of ladies and gentlemen called to see the President this evening. He gave them a reception in the Hotel parlor. Some of the Canadians called to pay their respects, among them five or six Roman Catholic clergymen. It may be mentioned as an extraordinary fact that nobody has since the President left Washington conversed with him on the subject of office, or asked him for a place.

Mortality in New York and Brooklyn—The Case of J. M. Montgomery vs. Santa Anna.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The mortality report for this city for the week, ending at six P. M. yesterday, gave the number of deaths below 4[illegible]. There were three new cases and seven deaths from cholera reported yesterday. The reports from Brooklyn yesterday show a continued abatement of the cholera in that city.

The case of J. M. Montgomery against General Santa Anna came up again yesterday before Judge Barnard, in Chambers of the Supreme Court. A motion is now made to vacate the order of arrest granted against defendant in the present suit. Montgomery claims to have been the agent of Santa Anna in his latest Mexican scheme, and now asks twenty-five thousand dollars for services rendered. During the reading of the affidavits Judge Barnard handed an anonymous letter to counsel which he had received, offering him a bribe in case he determined the questions before him in favor of Santa Anna.

Governor Brownlow at the Methodist Church.

PHILADELPHIA, September 2.—At the Union Methodist Church, this morning, Parson Brownlow delivered a characteristic address. The Parson is laboring under an attack of palsy. He said nothing could have induced him to attend the Convention in his present physical condition, but the deep abiding interest he felt in the cause of his country, and the fierce and terrible conflict now going on between the Executive and Legislative department of the Federal Government. If the President shall succeed; shall conquer in his purpose all the Southern Unionists and colored loyalists will have to leave, and seek some other abode. So far as I am concerned, I have fled from the South for the last time, and sought the shelter of the mountain gorges of Tennessee for the last time. I will sooner expire on a lamp post under the shadow of the Capitol of Tennessee.

St. Louis Cholera Report—Untrue Rumor—Montana Election.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 2.—The incomplete mortality report for the week ending Friday shows three hundred and thirty burials from cholera. About four hundred and fifty is probably the true number of deaths for the week, which is only one-third the interments for the preceding week.

Officers from the plains say the reported capture of Colonel Carrington's wife by the Indians is untrue.

Governor Meagher, of Montana, has ordered an election for the Territorial Legislature, to be held on the third of September.

Cable of Last Year Found—Another Line in Progress of Construction.

HEART'S CONTENT, Sept. 2.—The cable of last year was fished up this Sunday morning at four o'clock and forty minutes, in latitude 51° 52 min., longitude 36°. The splice was made and the cable lowered at 7 o'clock this morning. The Great Eastern is now seven hundred miles from here paying out. Everything is going on well and they expect to reach here on Saturday next.

Fire at St. Louis—Cholera Report.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 1.—The brass foundry of E. Caughlin, and the extensive candy factory of E. Hesselmyer & Hymans, Locust street, between Main and Second streets, was burned last night. The loss of the latter was merely by water, but is nearly complete. The total loss is nearly $40,000, mostly insured.

The cholera deaths yesterday were about sixty.

Arrangements to Ratify the Proceedings of the Late Philadelphia Convention.

WASHINGTON, September 2.—A preliminary meeting was held in Alexandria last night for the purpose of making arrangements to hold a mass meeting at an early date to ratify the proceedings of the late Convention in Philadelphia.

Democratic and Republican Nominations.

DOYLESTOWN, PA., Sept. 1.—Henry P. Ross was nominated for Congress in the Fifth Pa. District by the Democrats, and William Taylor by the Republicans.

The Camp Meeting Riot.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 2.—The young man, Hilton Benson, shot at the camp meeting riot it is thought will recover. The local authorities of Ann Arundel county in which the camp meeting was held, are investigating the case. A colored man was arrested here to-day, on a warrant issued by them, charged with riotous conduct at said camp and using threats to kill a white man. So far as known none of the white rioters have been arrested.

Arrival of Mr. Oliphant, and Two Japanese Gentlemen of High Rank.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Mr. Oliphant, member of the British Parliament, arrived at Boston on Friday, accompanied by two young Japanese gentlemen of high rank, who were sent to England to obtain their education. They propose to pass their autumn vacation in a tour through this country.

Order Issued by Gen. Meade.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—On the thirteenth ult., an order was issued by Major General Meade, commanding the Department of the East, assuming command, and announcing that the staff officers of the late Military Division would continue to act until his future staff should be composed.

Queen Emma Sailed for Home—Government Bonds Gone to Europe.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Queen Emma, of the Sandwich Islands, started for home to-day via Aspinwall and San Francisco.

The steamers Arago and City of Paris took out to-day about $400,000 in government bonds.

Fire at Hartford Connecticut.

HARTFORD, CONN., Sept. 2.—Between eight and nine o'clock to-night, the large manufactory of Hubbard & Co., makers of clocks and lamp trimmings, at Meriden, took fire and was burned to the ground. The loss is not ascertained.

Daniel A. Lincoln Nominated for Congress.

READING, PA., Sept. 2.—Daniel A. Lincoln was nominated to-day for Congress by the Republican County Convention.

The Cholera Near Richmond.

RICHMOND, VA., September 1.—Several cases of cholera occurred the past week, among the troops at Camp Grant, near this city, the disease is reported increasing in that locality. No recent cases in Richmond.

Death of a Ship Captain.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Captain A. P. Foster, of the bark Quickstep, from Jamaica, died at sea. Three of her crew are sick of fever and been transferred to the hospital ship.

Sailing of Steamers.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 2.—The steamers George Cromwell and Warrior sailed for New York, and C. Concordia for Boston. The steamer Raleigh arrived from New York.

A Pleasant Excursion—Corner Stone Laying at Alpsville.

At two o'clock yesterday afternoon an excursion train, containing some three hundred people—a great number of whom were ladies—left the depot of the Pittsburgh & Connellsville Railroad, at the foot of Ross street, and proceeded up the road about eight miles where they alighted from the train, and embarking in a number of skiffs, crossed the Monongahela to the pleasant village of Alpsville. The village is situated on the south bank of the stream, occupying a picturesque position on a sloping hillside, with its long range of cottages, some brown, some white, stretching almost to the water's edge, while in the rear of the village, and forming, as it were, a sort of a background, stands Mount Bigley, its sides and summit covered with great forest trees, the leaves of which are just turning from emerald to crimson and gold. At the foot of this mount the foundation for a Catholic Church has been laid, and yesterday was set apart as the day on which the corner stone was to be laid. The object of the excursionists was to be present at the ceremonial, which from the preparations that had been made promised to be one of rare interest. At three o'clock Right Rev. M. Domenec, assisted by Rev. J. Schmidt, appeared in his pontificals, and addressed the assemblage in a brief and eloquent manner.

In the course of his remarks he took occasion to return his own thanks, with those of the entire diocese, to N. J. Bigley, Esq., through whose munificence the church is being erected.

At the conclusion of his address the band played a beautiful air, while a number of voices joined in singing a pean to the Most High, after which the Bishop assumed his pontiff's hat and crozier, and with all the ceremony incidental to such an occasion, the stone was laid.

The Prelate then gave his benediction, and while the band discoursed excellent music the entire assemblage marched to the residence of Mr. N. J. Bigley, where a sumptuous repast was served, in such a manner as showed that the hand that had provided the delicacies was not that of a niggard. The excursionists returned to the city at half-past seven o'clock, well satisfied with the work of the day.

A Breach of Etiquette Remedied.

For a great while, the better portion of our amusement lovers have been greatly annoyed by vulgar people rushing noisily from the house, just as the denouement of the play is reached, but before the text of the piece has been delivered. This reprehensible practice is not only vulgar in the extreme, but selfish. When people go to a place of amusement, it is supposed they wish to see and hear the entire performance—especially the close, as in that the interest of the performance centers. But how disgusting to have a rude uncouth fellow jump up and leave the house with as much noise, and as little care for other peoples comfort, as if he had been raised in some African jungle. Besides this, it is an indirect insult to those upon the stage, who are endeavoring to entertain their auditors. No gentleman would be guilty of this gross breach of etiquette. If a man can remain for three or four hours to witness a play he can surely stay three minutes longer even at the cost of self, knowing that he is contributing to the comfort of others, by abridging himself those three minutes of liberty. We are pleased to see that Manager Hess, to remedy this evil, has adopted the policy of closing his doors about five minutes before the curtain descends for the last time, and he thereby insures his patrons a freedom from this disagreeable annoyance complained of.

An Indecent Assault on a Young Girl.

Annie Birdsell appeared before Justice Lipp on Saturday, and made oath against Stephen Jeremy, for an assault with an intent to commit a rape. If the statement of the prosecutrix can be relied on, Stephen has been conducting himself in a very ungentlemanly like manner toward her. This is her story. She became acquainted with Jeremy some three months since, at the Baptist church, in South Pittsburgh. He, with commendable gallantry, tendered his services to escort her home. She accepted them and they became friends. After a time Stephen presuming on their intimacy began to make improper advances to the fair Annie, who of course resented them, but in such a way as not to give offense to Stephen, and he still continued his visits. On Friday night, however, while the twain were walking along the Brownsville turnpike in Lower St. Clair township Stephen made an indecent assault upon Annie. After somewhat of a struggle she freed herself from his grasp and fled to the house of a friend near by minus her hat and shawl, which she supposed to be in the possession of Jeremy. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.

Rowdyism in a Street Car.

Two drunken young men entered one of the Pittsburgh and Manchester Passenger cars on Saturday night, near the corner of Ohio and Federal streets. After indulging in some loud talk, one of the "roughs" put his arm around the waist of a young lady sitting next to him and endeavored to draw her toward him. The lady became very indignant and called on the conductor to defend her from insult. The official came to the rescue at once, and attempted to eject the offender from the car. But it was no use. The conductor, backed by the driver and a couple of volunteers, used every effort to remove the affectionate "rough," but at length they were forced to give up their self-imposed task in despair, and the greater portion of the passengers vacated the conveyance, choosing rather to walk than to share the vehicle with those, who had virtually taken possession of it by brute force. We would advise the conductors of public conveyances hereafter to inform the officers of the roads of such affairs when they transpire, so that the parties offending may be arrested and punished by legal process.

Ruffianly Conduct.

About nine o'clock on Saturday morning a most outrageous affair took place at the suspension bridge, in which one of the toll keepers of the bridge was most wantonly beaten. Mr. Stewart the toll keeper in question, was taking toll of a teamster, when car No. 30 on the Manchester Passenger Railway came up and Albert Camerord the driver called out to Mr. S. in an insulting manner to hurry up. Mr. S. replied pretty sharply, when Camerord sprang from the car, and struck Mr. Stewart on the head, behind the ear with what is supposed to have been a slung shot, or a "handy billy." Mr. Stewart was taken up in an insensible condition, and carried to his home in the First ward, Allegheny, where he received medical attention, and is now recovering.

Jackson Duncan, Esq., Superintendent of the bridge, went immediately before Alderman Donaldson, and made information against Camerord for assault and battery. He was arrested and held to bail in the sum of $500, for his appearance to-day.

The Hair a Crown of Glory.

—He whose ingenuity has invented something to remove premature Baldness, arrest the falling out of the Hair, Promote its Growth, eradicate humors and hair eaters, keep the scalp in a cool and healthy condition, and Change the Hair to its natural, original color, is indeed a public benefactor. All this "Barrett's Hair Restorative" seems to do to a charm, as a mass of testimony from some of the most prominent and influential citizens in the country will show, and so far as we know, they all concur in the fact that the effect, after using one bottle only, is truly miraculous.

Firemen's Parade.

The Firemen's Parade, on Saturday, although not representing the full force of the fire department, was nevertheless a very creditable display. The weather was beautiful until just as the procession was disbanding, when a heavy storm was threatened, which, however, with the exception of a small shower, passed around the city. The wind, however, held high carnival, and somewhat disarranged the ornamentation of some of the carriages before they were safely housed.

The route of the procession was substantially the same as noticed in the city papers. The members of the fire department were dressed in the uniform of their respective companies, and presented a very handsome appearance. The streets through which the procession passed were crowded with men, women and children, as were also the windows and doorways of the dwellings and stores. The procession was led by Smith's band, and at intervals in the procession other bands of music, together with the fife and drum, kept the air filled with martial strains. In the evening a large delegation of the firemen in uniform visited the Theatre. Everything, so far as we could learn, passed off pleasantly, and the parade, although not so large as upon former occasions, was a very creditable display.

Amusements.

Lawrence P. Barrett closed a very successful engagement at the Opera House on Saturday evening. This week we are to have Lucille Western, who makes her first appearance in several years to-night, in Buckstone's "Flowers of the Forest." She is a good actress and will draw immensely.

The Theatre opened on Saturday evening to a good house—in fact, a perfect jam. We withhold our opinion of the new stock company until we see more of them. To-night the great tragic actress Emma Waller appears at this house in her great impersonation of "Meg Merriles."

The doors of the Academy of Music were thrown open to the public on Saturday evening. Taking into consideration everything which the management had to contend with, the opening was a perfect success, although the audience was not large. The new company, with one or two exceptions, performed their parts admirably. Miss Kate Estelle and Mr. W. E. Foster were particularly good. To-night, the great California favorite, Miss Annetta Ince, opens at this establishment as Julia, in Sheridan Knowles' play of the Hunchback.

Change of Firm.—By advertisement in another column it will be seen that the old established brewery of Joshua Rhodes & Co., has passed into other hands, and will hereafter be conducted by a new firm. This brewery has probably the best reputation as the most extensive establishment of its kind in the West. A large addition has just been built to the old concern, making it perfect in all its departments. Messrs. Carson, Iredlington & Co., comprising the new firm are old hands at the business, so that the reputation of the old concern will not suffer in the new. We bespeak for them a liberal patronage.

The Turnerfest at Wheeling.—The Concordia Musical Society of Birmingham, and the Lorely Maennerchor Society of this city, together with a delegation of about two hundred Turners of Pittsburg and Allegheny, accompanied by the Great Western Band, will leave to-morrow morning to participate in the annual meeting of the German Musical Societies and Turner organizations of the West.

Struck Him.—Jonas Miller appeared before Alderman Lynch on Saturday, and made oath against Jane Sherline for assault and battery. It appears the defendant struck the unoffending Jonas over the cranium with an article known in domestic parlance as a pot-stick. Jane was arrested for striking Jonas, and held to bail for a hearing.

Held for a Trial.—Jennie Madison came to the office of Alderman Taylor on Saturday, and made oath against David Jones for surety of the peace. David was arrested but was released on furnishing bail for his appearance at the next term of the criminal court.

Discharged.—John Meland was before Alderman Taylor on Saturday, to answer a charge of assault and battery, preferred against him by Thomas Donnelly. After a hearing he was discharged, there being no evidence to warrant a prosecution.

Rare Chance.—By reference to our Want column of this morning's paper, a rare chance is offered to a servant girl who understands cooking, washing and ironing. Any one desiring a permanent situation and good treatment should apply at once.

Fire.—On Saturday morning the dwelling house of James Dickson, market gardener on Nevilles Island, took fire, and before any assistance could be obtained, the dwelling, together with its contents, were entirely consumed.

Soldiers' League.—A meeting of the soldiers of Allegheny City will be held to-morrow (Tuesday) evening, at seven and a half o'clock, at the Diamond [illegible], for the purpose of forming a "Soldiers' League."

Riotous.—Billy and Paddy Deiker got very drunk on Saturday, and indulged in a sort of free fight on Ohio street, Allegheny City. They were both arrested, and made to give bail for a hearing to-day.

Fire Alarm.—The supposed alarm of fire, on Saturday afternoon, was occasioned by the ringing of the Niagara bell, as the firemen's procession passed their engine house.

Oakland Select School.—We call attention to the announcement, in our advertising columns, of the opening of the fall session of this school.

Oratorio Society.—Attention is called to the advertisement of the Oratorio association in another column.

DIED.

WILLSON—August 31st, 1866, at his residence in Allegheny City, Bidwell, corner of Hamlin street, Rev. JAMES M. WILLSON, in his 58th year.

Friends will attend at two o'clock P. M. The remains will be taken in the four o'clock train to Philadelphia for interment.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

CONVENTION OF SOUTHERN UNIONISTS.

This body will convene in Philadelphia to-day. The representation from the revolted States will be full, and of the highest personal respectability. It is quite probable there will be relatively fewer persons among them eminent for political position and experience than appeared in the late Philadelphia Convention. The reason is obvious. During the thirty years in which the South was preparing for the great struggle, special pains were taken to exclude from public life all men who did not enter heartily into the conspiracy. Hence it happens that most of the names in that section, conspicuous in political walks, belong to men more or less tinctured with treason.

But the Convention will not be composed exclusively of Southern Loyalists. Governor CURTIN has requested the Republican Congressmen from Pennsylvania to attend, and has designated four other gentlemen to keep them company. In other Northern States, deputations have been appointed, some in one form, and some in another, so that all, or nearly all, the States will be represented. These delegations from the loyal States will attend for the purposes of consultation, and will convey the sympathies and countenance of the vast loyal populations of which they form a part.

It will be an assembly of Free Men. Not one among them all will stand justly exposed to a felon's death as a violator of the laws. It will set an example of Free Speech. Not having halters about their necks, and being without occasion to supplicate the Executive clemency, it will indulge in Free Speech. Whatever deliverances may be made will come from the heart, and not be adopted through prudential considerations, at the dictation of the President, or of any body else. No doubt the Republicans of Philadelphia will do honor to this body of faithful men with that cordiality for which they are celebrated.

—We shall give full reports of the doings of the Convention as furnished by the Associated Press dispatches, and in addition by special dispatches and letters from one of our editors, who is on the ground.

HONORS TO THE PRESIDENT.

The President, attended by high officers of the Civil and Military Departments, is making a ceremonious Progress through a number of the Middle and Western States. The occasion of this tour is to participate in laying the corner-stone of a monument designated to perpetuate the memory and services of the Hon. STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS, renowned as a Senator in Congress for Illinois.

Under ordinary circumstances little disinclination would be evinced to participating in suitable demonstrations of respect for the government in the person of the Executive Head. As the case stands, strong repugnances are manifested by many individuals to such participation. The reason is that the circumstances are extraordinary.

This wide-spread aversion to honoring the President calls forth sharp and vehement strictures. From whom? In the main, from men who, eighteen months ago, found no words too opprobrious to express their detestation of the President; who thought the nation disgraced by his conduct, and demanded his removal by impeachment. If we inquire what has wrought so notable a change in the tone and bearing of these people towards the President, we shall be able to estimate correctly the reasonableness of the corresponding change that has come over the bulk of his former supporters.

President JOHNSON owes his high office to the confidence reposed in him by the Republican party. In an important sense he occupies the Presidency by a power of attorney from them. He sees fit to use this power in a manner not contemplated by them in giving it, and in derogation of the principles they have steadily professed. He makes their refusal to sanction this breach of trust an excuse for wielding against them all the authority with which he is clothed. He is engaged in banishing them from all subordinate positions under the government, so far as he can, even by the most arbitrary measures, and in putting into the places vacated men who opposed his election and have persistently combatted the principles to which he professed to bear allegiance. Nor is this all. For months past he has let no opportunity slip to make popular addresses savagely denunciatory of the men whose confidence he is wantonly violating. Even on this Presidential Progress he cannot restrain his tongue within limits; but persists in converting his trip into a partizan canvass, thus giving color to the suspicion that his real object is not to honor the dead statesman, but to influence the elections soon to be held.

There is still another point deserving of consideration. The Executive is not the only Department of the Government. There are three co-ordinate branches, each, in its appropriate sphere, independent, and equal to the other two in consequence and dignity. The President, in his speeches, constantly assails one branch of the government with an energy altogether unmatched hitherto in this country. By this coarse and inexcusable habit he puts it out of the power of men who desire to treat all branches of the government with decorum, to be present at meetings of ceremony during his tour. He is sure to make them accessory by their presence to his brutal and revolutionary tirades against the law-making Department. He even goes so far as to deny that the bodies to which he has addressed his messages, whose bills he has vetoed or approved, whose laws he is daily enforcing, under whose appropriation, at the end of every quarter, he puts his hands into the National Treasury and takes out his salary, is a Congress at all, but simply usurping assemblies, and he does this as the entering wedge for measures of military coercion against the representatives of the States and the People.

Of course, the rebels who cringed in fear at his feet for a few weeks after his accession to the Presidency, and the Democrats who denounced him as a drunken sot and a dirty blackguard, who ought to be sent headlong out of office, and out of decent society, are deeply enamored with him now. Whatever they may say of him in private, they make servile haste to bow before him in public and do him honor. If these men, by their votes, had made ANDREW JOHNSON President, and he had betrayed them, as he has the Republicans, they are the last men in the world who would be caught swinging censors of burning incense under his nose before gathered multitudes of their fellow citizens. A sense of self-respect, and of what is due to the claims of integrity on the part of public men, would constrain their absence. These Democrats, who are now overflowing with declarations of the respect due the Presidential office, are not the meekest of men, but swift to resent affronts offered to themselves.

DISINTEGRATION.

European newspapers, and some that are actuated by strong liberal tendencies, express apprehensions, arising out of the attitude of political affairs in this country, that we are destined to imitate and surpass the wretched fate of Mexico. They fear that the war is likely to be re-opened, under circumstances of increased exasperation; that the Union, instead of being riven in twain, is pretty sure to fall into fragments; and that the inhabitants of the respective States, frenzied by faction and brutalized by ungovernable passions, will fall into mutually warring clans, hostile to social order and personal security, and fatal to popular institutions. Taking their observations from remote distances; comprehending only partially the multitudinous voices that arise in our popular discussions; not perceiving or inadequately estimating that powerful under-current of common sense, moderation and self-control, which is the product of universal education, combined with the long use of Liberty in its fullest acceptation, it is not wonderful they rush to the conclusion that, as a people, we are pushing headlong to destruction, and carrying with us the last possibility of maintaining government by the people.

Now, we do not deny that there are indications of sinister aspect, such as are adapted to give all thoughtful friends of free institutions disquietude. Unquestionably there are elements in operation which, left uncounteracted, would work the demolition of Republicanism here. Men have been found, in every age and country, ready to build their own fortunes, and to endow their families in perpetuity, at the expense of their fellow-citizens. No republic ever existed without exciting in the minds of venal or ambitious men thoughts of its overthrow. These thoughts have sometimes floated like a dreamy haze, and sometimes solidified into gigantic and daring plans, which have shaken nations as with an earthquake's tread. Nor, can it be concealed that periods of unwonted ferment, like that through which we are now passing, are the epochs most fruitful of conspiracies against public liberty. Such crises furnish the excuses and afford the opportunities which bold and bad men desire.

But the American people, during the last five years, have demonstrated to the whole world of what mettle they are made, and in what mold cast. Under such an emergency, no other people ever made an equal sacrifice of blood and treasure, under a like amount of provocation no people ever displayed so admirable a self-restraint and moderation as the loyal masses of this Republic. In all this they gave assurance of what they can and will do in time to come. It is strange that European Liberals, after carrying an oppressive weight of fears during the fore part of the rebellion, and being grandly relieved by the noble attitude and bearing of the nation, should now despond.

True, there is an intemperance of language among us; a democratic omission of reverence for men in high places; a bruskness in personal allusions and appeals, greatly to be depreciated as breaches of good manners; but these defects really signify less with us than they would among an aristocratic people, where powerful customs would need to be overcome before such indulgences could be possible.

Notwithstanding all these limitations, it is manifest that much depends on the results of the elections now approaching. If the ballot-boxes shall show a material abatement of patriotic zeal; if the voters shall distinctly intimate that they hold the rebellion to have been a pardonable escapade; that, after all, the rebels are better and truer men than those who resisted and conquered them; in a word, if a counter-revolution shall silently be accomplished, and the laurel transferred from the victors to the vanquished; if treason shall be made honorable, and loyalty odious; then, indeed, the republic and the cause of civil liberty may as well be given up, and all necks be make ready for the feet of a despot.

But we do not so read the premonishment. As we mingle among the men who saved the nation, we find them sound to the core—indignant at the treachery which has fallen upon them, but undismayed as to the future. Having delivered the republic from the power of hundreds of thousands of armed foes, they feel competent to deal with the new danger, and to trample it under their feet.

* * *

On Friday Mr. Wm. F. Johnston entered upon his duties as Collector of the Port of Philadelphia. Upon the occasion he made some remarks to the employees. He said:

"I expect you all to remain at your posts until otherwise ordered, as I have made all the appointments I intend to until I have become more conversant with the duties on which I have entered; but in no event would any of the present incumbents be retained unless they were undisguised supporters of the President and his policy, and the principles set forth in the address of the late Philadelphia Convention, and that he considered the best evidence of sympathy and support to the President's policy an active membership and participation in the work of the various National Union Johnson clubs of the city."

MANUFACNURE OF LEATHER.—More leather is manufactured in the Eleventh Collection District of Pennsylvania than in any other district in the United States. The annual value approaches three millions of dollars. Of this whole amount more than two-thirds are produced in Wayne county. In that county there are nineteen tanneries, and the assessed value of the product for the last twelve months reaches the sum of $2,031,179. These nineteen tanneries use hemlock bark, while those of Monroe county use oak bark principally, if not exclusively.

* * *

THE New York Post, which sustains the President's Policy, says:

"Does Mr. Johnson know that by his indecorous language and injudicious conduct he is seriously increasing the difficulties under which the country already staggers? If he does not, it would be well if some judicious friend—if he has any such left—would tell him this.

With his desire that the loyal representatives of the Southern States shall be without further delay admitted to their seats in Congress, it is known that we, with a considerable and most respectable part of the Republican party, strongly sympathize. But this result is to be brought about by reasoning, by persuasion, by proving to the country that such a course is the wisest; it cannot be attained by the course which Mr. Johnson has so unwisely chosen to adopt and follow. It would be well for him to know that he is very fast making himself personally odious. The loyal people of the Northern States, those who stood by the Union when it was attacked by rebels, see with a dissatisfaction and alarm, which is no longer concealed, that the President whom their votes elevated to his position, surrounds himself, by his own choice apparently, with men like Tom Florence, Garrett Davis, Saulsbury and others who, like these, during the war never concealed their sympathies with treason. They see Mr. Johnson, further, removing from office men of ability, and of undoubted fidelity to the Union, and putting in their places not war Democrats, not Republicans who agree with his views on the question of representation, but copperheads, sympathizers with treason, persons whose course during the war made them forever hateful to the loyal people."

All this is true as the gospel, and much more, in the same direction, which the Post does not see fit to say, is equally true.

* * *

THE Union Springs (Ala.) Times demonstrates how perfectly it is reconstructed, and how admirably the President's Policy operates, by paragraphs of this sort:

"Butler turned thief at the start; Turchin was a natural born imp of perdition; Thomas has displayed a remarkable aptitude for giving white people's churches to his black betters; Sherman found the torch a more congenial weapon to his unknightly nature than the sword; Grant tried to be a politician, but failed as signally as when he attempted to defeat Lee fairly; and now one of the small fry, a short tailed, slimy tadpole of the latter spawn, the blathering disgrace of an honest father, an everlasting libel upon his Irish blood, the scorn of brave men and the synonym of infamy, Major General Phil. H. Sheridan, has added his name to this list of outrages on humanity."

That somewhat surpasses the vituperative energy of the President himself.

CHOLERA! CHOLERA!! CHOLERA!!!

With the almost certain advent of cholera with the coming of the spring, no thoughtful person will be unprepared for it. Secure what experience has demonstrated to be the most certain antidote—that which has cured once will cure again—and never purchase a new and untried article, when an old and reliable article can be had.

When the cholera visited us on two former occasions, it was found by experience that

FLEMING'S CHOLERA MIXTURE

Was the best and superceded all others, therefore it stands to reason that, if you would have an article that you can depend on, you should purchase it to the exclusion of all others. Sold only in Pittsburgh, at

C. C. SEELY'S
CHOLERA PREVENTIVE.

FOR REGULATING THE BOWELS, destroying Acidity in the Stomach, creating a healthy action of the Liver, assisting in the Secretion of Healthy Bile, giving Regularity to the Bowels, and assisting the System to a Healthy state, the PREVENTIVE is unsurpassed. It has been tried in thousands of instances, and has never been known to fail where the directions were strictly followed.

At this time, when we know not at what moment the fell destroyer may be upon us, nothing should be left undone that can be done to give the system a healthy action, and it is with a view to bring about this great desideratum, which of itself is the strongest bulwark against the attacks of cholera, that this medicine is offered to an intelligent public. Its action in cases of Diarrhea is magical. One bottle of the Preventive serves to check the complaint—two seldom required.

Seely's Cholera Preventive

Is the result of many years study and labor. The object of the proprietor in the first place was to produce a medicine that would assist digestion and relieve him from the terrible sufferings of Dyspepsia. Having attained this great end, he found that the mixture was an admirable regulator, and that in cases of diarrhea its action was wonderful. Incipient Diarrhea was cured by a single bottle, and even chronic cases were compelled to succumb to the powerful efficacy of this medicine.

Having by actual experiment in his own case, and that of his family, satisfied himself of its curative powers, he offers it to the public in full confidence that it will effect all that he claims for it.

Unlike the numberless quack nostrums that are foisted upon a too credulous public, it is not a universal cure-all, but is intended for a remedy, and is only efficacious in cases of Incipient Cholera, Diarrhea, Dyspepsia, or kindred ills, arising for the most part from imperfect digestion.

In full confidence of its restorative powers, it is now offered to the public.

No household should be without a supply of it.

Steamboats, Hotels and Travellers should always have it on hand.

It is easy to take, simple in its nature, and instantaneous in its effects.

Sold by all respectable druggists and country storekeepers. au27:128M

THE NEW
Spring and Summer Medicine.

FLUID EXTRACT
SARSAPARILLA,
COMBINED WITH
Iodide of Lime,
PREPARED FOR
G. W. PETTES, BOSTON,
BY
James R. Nichols & Co.,
MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS,
MANUFACTURERS OF THE
ELIXIR PERUVIAN BARK
WITH
Protoxide of Iron,
Which has become so favorably known as a
Tonic and Restorative,
By Physicians and Invalids in all parts of the country.

The new preparation, "SARSAPARILLA IN A COMBINATION WITH IODIDE OF LIME," presents one of the most prompt alterative agents in a form capable of exerting full action upon the system, and this in minute and pleasant doses. It is conceded that the alterative, resolvent, or tonic effects of Iodine, are exerted most decidedly when associated with other alteratives, in combination; and the Sarsaparilla seems to fulfil perfectly all the favorable requisitions.

The first effect usually observed when "SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME" is taken, is an increase of appetite, showing that it has tonic properties of a marked character. Its alterative effects are manifest in its ready combination with the blood and tissues. Pale, scrofulous women and children improve rapidly under its use, and the vital functions assume a healthy condition.

It is admirably adapted to a large number of chronic or acute affections peculiar to children. It is suited to them, both by the mildness and efficiency of Medicinal effect and the pleasant, attractive form of the remedy. It may be given for a long period where constitutional influences are desired, and no repugnance, or disinclination to take the syrup, encountered. In White-Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, and Distortions of the Spine, it should be given persistently, in moderate doses, until relief is obtained.

In the Spring of the Year, and during the Warm Weather,

The accumulation of morbid matters in the system seems to become manifest and very troublesome. Lassitude, Headache, Boils, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Pains in the Joints, Indigestion, etc., are very common. Nothing ever devised is better adapted to exterminate or drive off these affections than this new combination of SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME.

No preparation like it, or which approximates to it as an

has ever before been placed within the reach of invalids. Indeed, it is an entirely NEW and SCIENTIFIC combination, in no respect resembling anything hitherto employed.

The opinion of medical men concerning it, the description of its chemical character, therapeutic value, manner of use, etc., are given in a circular, which can be had at the store of any and all first-class Druggists.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST PAGE.)

An Irish Heiress.

Bridget McKelvy is a denizen of Plum Alley, where she has resided since her importation from Erin, six years since. On Thursday Bridget received a letter from Ireland, stating that her only parent was just deceased, and that the fortunate Bridget was the lawful heiress to some twenty acres of land, in the county of Monaghan. Forgetting her grief in the accession—to what seemed to her an immense estate, Bridget indulged in frequent potations with her spouse William, who too, seemed greatly elated by his wife's good luck. Under the inspiring influence of liquor, the heiress became rather arrogant, and in the course of the conversation gave William to understand that all his future hopes of elevation in this world rested solely upon her, in fact that he should pay her due reverence as the "architect of his fortune." The Benedict was willing to accept her gold but not her insolence, and he accordingly in a very uncomplimentary allusion to some disgraceful affair, in which Bridgets brother had figured in Ireland, insulted her. He had often insulted her in her days of adversity, and she bore the taunts resignedly. But now when fickle fortune deigned to smile upon her, causing the proud blood of her ancient ancesry to course through her veins with renewed vigor, she would not tamely submit to insult? No; she would be avenged, and, raising a shovel, she attempted to strike her liege lord over the head. He was too wary, however, to be taken thus by surprise, and, warding off the intended blow, with the aid of a heavy iron poker, he struck Bridget on the arm, and sent her reeling to the floor. "The vaulting ambition" of the heiress, like that of the Scottish Thane, had overleaped itself, and as she laid there bleeding, she felt that she was beaten, but not conquered. Inspired with a desire for revenge, Bridget hastened, as fast as her condition would permit, to the office of Alderman Morrow and made information against William for assault and battery. While her deposition was being taken, Bridget, in an aside to the Magistrate, notified him of her intention to return to the "Gem of the Sea," and there marry an old lover of her youth, who still waited in single blessedness the coming of his bride. A warrant was issued for the arrest of William, but when the officer arrived at the residence of the accused he found that he was non est. On inquiry he learned that William had betaken himself to Ohio to avoid the meshes of the law.

Claims Upon the Government.

Since the passage of the late act of Congress granting the additional bounties, articles have appeared from time to time in the public prints, announcing to claimants that no instruction, as to the mode of collecting the said bounty had as yet been issued by the Paymaster General or other disbursing officer, and consequently nothing was to be gained by forwarding applications at the present. In fact the idea has been held out that all claims forwarded now only put the applicant to an unnecessary trouble and expense inasmuch as the work would have to be done over. Indeed it has been asserted that of some forty thousand applications already on file in the Paymaster General's office, not one was correctly made out. We were shown a letter on Saturday received by a gentleman in this city from the Paymaster General at Washington, announcing the receipt of several claims and promising to give them "immediate attention" and to "adjust and settle them at the earliest practicable moment."

A Domestic Combat.

Jane Simms is employed as a domestic at the Union Depot Hotel, on Liberty street. It appears that Jane has an ardent admirer in the person of one William Williams, a vender of green vegetables, who has the patronage of mine host of the hotel above mentioned. In coming to and fro, William and Jane became intimate; so very intimate that he paid her a visit in her own room, and remained for a whole day. This aroused the indignation envy, or jealousy of another domestic named Ann Clafferty, who after treating Jane to a lengthy lecture on moral philosophy, she struck her a severe blow in the face. Jane, who is rather prepossessing and of delicate physique, finding herself unable to cope with the muscular representative of virtue, i. e., Miss Clafferty, repaired to the office of Alderman Morrow, and instituted legal proceedings against Ann, for assault and battery. The latter was arrested and forced to give bail for a hearing to-day.

Decapitation Still Going On.

The latest act of decapitation of loyal office holders took place at the office of the Collector of Internal Revenue Saturday. Mrs. Mary Davis the widow of Thomas Davis, who fought under General Geary in the Mexican war, and belonged to the 63d Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, and fell in the line of duty at Fair Oaks, Virginia, has been engaged for some time past in the office aforesaid, and by means of the pittance derived from this and similar employments, has been maintaining and educating her fatherless children. The proscriptive and merciless Executive axe, however, would not spare even her, and she has been removed from office, and turned upon the cold charity of the world. It might be well to state that Mrs. D. endorsed the Congressional plan of reconstruction, and may therefore be classed among those who have been removed for opinion's sake.

Charged with Stealing.—Three young men, named George Phillips, C. W. Carroll and Adam Kephart, who board at No. 731 Penn street, entered a complaint, on Saturday, before Acting Mayor Morrow, against George Evans, charging him with stealing from them various articles, as follows: From Phillips, one pair of boots, valued at eight dollars; from Carroll, sixteen dollars in money, and from Kephart an open faced silver watch, valued at thirteen dollars. Some of the articles being found in his possession, three distinct charges were made against him, and in default of five hundred dollars bail he was committed to jail.

W. N. Ogden, Esq.—This able, patriotic and intelligent representative of the Second ward, in Common Council, has excited the editor of the Post to such an extent as to be treated to a scurrilous and abusive attack in Saturday's issue of that paper. Mr. Ogden's offence was that he ably opposed a resolution introduced in Council, to grant President Johnson a welcome to the city by the city Fathers. Loyal citizens know how to respect Mr. Ogden and the abuse showered upon him by the Post, will have no more effect than it had some time ago upon President Johnson from the same source.

The Kittanning Convention—The Union Republican Convention which assembles at Kittanning at Tuesday next, promises to be one of the largest assemblages ever convened in Western Pennsylvania. H. Blackstone, Esq., Superintendent of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, announces that excursion tickets will be issued from Pittsburgh, Kiskiminitis Junction, Freeport, &c., so that all are afforded an opportunity of attending. An extra train will leave Mahoning for Kittanning at 11:30 a. m., and returning will leave Kittanning at 10 o'clock p. m.

Caned.—On Friday afternoon, just as the Custom House was closed, the employees of that institution came forward and presented the retiring officer, Captain Charles W. Bachelor, with a handsome ebony cane, with a massive and handsomely carved gold head, upon which the following inscription was engraved "Captain C. W. Batchelor, from Employees of Custom House; Pittsburgh, Pa. Augaust 31st, 1866. The presentation speech was made by James M'Gill, and responded to by Captain Batchelor.

Mayor's Court.—On Saturday morning seven individuals were before the Mayor, six of whom being charged with intoxication, and not having the wherewith to pay their fines were sent to the hill for twenty-four hours each. The remaining man was also drunk, but was very disorderly, flourishing a Colt's navy revolver to the imminent peril of persons in the neighborhood. He was fined $25 which he paid.

The London Quarterly Review, for July, contains—1. The Personal Life of Washington; 2. The Huegonots at the Galleys, 3. Iron and Steel; 4. Life of Sir Joshua Reynolds; 5. Baker's Albert Nyanza; 6. Life of Bishop Wilson; 7. The Value of India to England; 8. Jamaica, its Disturbances and its Prospects; 9. The Change of Ministry. For sale by W. A. Gildenfenny, 45 Fifth street.

The New Incumbent.—On Friday evening last, in obedience to instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, Captain C. W. Batchelor turned over to his successor, James Lowry, Jr., Esq., all the moneys, papers, &c., in his possession belonging to the office. On Saturday morning the Custom House was open as usual under Mr. Lowry's administration.

Camp Meeting.—At the recent camp meeting at Tarentum, thirty persons were admitted to the church on probation. A vote having been taken as to whether the meeting should be held on the same grounds during the coming year, it was decided in the affirmative. The Allbright (German) Methodists are now holding a meeting upon the same grounds, which will continue during this week.

Accidental Poisoning.—Adolph Moeckel, bar keeper of the Drovers Home, was accidentally poisoned on Thursday last, by drinking a decoction made from Jamestown or Gympson weed, which was recommended as a remedy for a disease under which he was suffering. He received prompt attention from Dr. Asdale, and is now recovering.

Fight.—During the progress of the firemen's procession down Penn street on Saturday, a number of individuals got into a fight on the corner of O'Hara and Penn streets, during which one of them received an ugly cut in the right cheek, and on his chin. No arrests were made. Whisky was at the bottom of the whole affair.

Surety of the Peace.—Alderman Taylor issued a warrant on Saturday morning for the arrest of Peter Miller, upon information made by Annie E. Faer, charging him with threatening to cut her and her husband into mince meat. The bloody-minded Peter will certainly be held to answer.

Lacreny.—John Story was arrested upon a warrant issued by Alderman Taylor on Saturday in consequence of John A[illegible] having made oath that he (Story) had [illegible] two shawls from him. Story returned the shawls, and the case was settled. A pretty [illegible] for the Army.]

Opening of Courts.—Our readers will bear in mind that the Courts of Oyer and Terminer, and Quarter Sessions commence their term this morning under the new order. Prosecutors will do well to be on hand promptly, in order that business may not be delayed.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article. jy11:dsw

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

Letter from Rev. H. W. Beecher.

NEW YORK, August 30.—Mr. Beecher having been invited to serve as Chaplain of the Cleveland Convention, responds in a letter dated at Peekskill, on the 30th ult., in which he says:

Gentlemen: I am obliged to you for the invitation which you have made to me to act as Chaplain to the Convention of Sailors and Soldiers about to convene at Cleveland. I cannot attend it, but I heartily wish it, and all other conventions, of what party soever, success, whose object is the restoration of all the States late in rebellion to their federal relations.

[He goes on to argue that the North has nothing to fear from the full and immediate restoration of the South; that liberty has nothing to apprehend; that the general government is unfit to exercise local government, and that the freedmen are entitled to no special care and protection. He closes by saying:]

Once united, we can, by schools, churches, a free press and increasing free speech, attack each evil and secure every good.

Meanwhile, the great chasm which rebellion made is not filled up. It grows deeper and stretches wider! Out of it rise dread spectres and threatening sounds. Let that gulf be closed, and bury in it slavery, sectional animosity and all strifes and hatreds!

It is fit that the brave men who, on sea and land, faced death to save the nation, should now, by their voice and vote, consummate what their swords rendered possible.

For the sake of the freedmen, for the sake of the South and its millions of our fellow countrymen, for our own sake and for the great cause of freedom and civilization, I urge the immediate reunion of all the parts which rebellion and war have shattered.

I am truly yours,
HENRY WARD BEECHER.

The War to Continue—Celebration of the Peruvian Independence.

NEW YORK, September 1.—A Herald's Valparaiso correspondent says: The news of the abandonment of the war by Spain had been received, but peace was not expected immediately, as it was the intention of the allied republics to make retaliatory war upon Spain and her commerce.

The 28th of July, the anniversary of Peruvian independence, was celebrated in grand style upon the newly arrived iron clads Huescar and Independence.

Admiral Tucker, the ex-Confederate, who had been placed in charge of the Peruvian Navy, is still stoutly opposed by Admiral Montero, who has actual command, and refuses to permit any observance of Tucker's orders.

It is reported that the banks have agreed to loan the Government six millions of dollars.

The importations from the United States amount, in 1865, to $1,600,000, being much less than those from England and other European and South American nations. Business was dull.

Renomination for Congress—The Camp Meeting Riots.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 1.—Colonel Charles E. Phelps, the present representative of the Third District of Maryland in Congress, was to-day re-nominated by the Conservatives.

An investigation in regard to the camp meeting riots is in progress by the local authorities, and the Freedmen's Bureau officers are also inquiring into the matter.

Arrested for Embezzlement.

NEW YORK, September 1.—George H. Briggs, paying teller for the Nassau Bank in this city was yesterday arrested on a charge of embezzling one hundred thousand dollars of the funds of the bank. Mr. Briggs had been in the habit of frequenting and losing heavily at various gambling houses throughout the city, and on being arrested made a full confession of his guilt.

New Secretary of the Interior.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Mr. Browning, the newly appointed Secretary of the Interior, appeared at the Department, this morning, and was sworn in by Judge Wylie, after which he was formally introduced to the heads of Bureaus, and immediately entered upon the duties of his new office.

Senator Wright Dangerously Ill.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—United States Senator Wright, from New Jersey, is lying dangerously ill at Norwalk, Connecticut. His long illness and advanced age make his recovery almost hopeless.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

SATURDAY, September 1, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as received by P. H. Mertz, were as follows: Gold, 146@146¾; 1881 bonds 112½@112¾; 5-20s, of 1862, 112½; do of 1864 offered at 109¾; do of 1865, 109¾; 10-40s large, 101¾; do small, 99; first series 7-30s, 107½@107¾; 2nd do, 106¾; 3d do, 106¾; Michigan Southern R. R., 83¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, 85¼; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad, 103¼; Erie Railroad, 72¾; Western Union Telegraph Company, 58¾; Chicago & Rock Island, 107¾; Chicago & North Western, 33¾; ditto preferred, 66¾.

Governments are rather lower for 1881's, Ten Forties, Five Twenties of 1864, and third series of Seven Thirties, but the balance of the list is steady. The sudden decline has prevented large amounts from being thrown upon the market, notwithstanding the present premium is very tempting to parties of a speculative turn, and there are but few investments that can be made at present that will yield so good a return, when safety is taken into consideration.

Parties who have been holding gold have become frightened somewhat by the shipments from Europe and the large payments into the Treasury for customs, and as some of them have commenced to sell, the premium has declined somewhat, and the chances are that it will go still lower.

Our local stock market is devoid of any activity, and the only inquiry is for some mining interests, which have yielded handsomely, but stock operators have overdone the business, the sudden decline of Franklin Copper from 110 to 36, is an example of the [illegible] gambling in this class of securities.

—The Assistant Treasurer at New York has already disbursed $15,000,000 on account of the temporary loan, and the supply of money is in excess of the wants of borrowers. There seems to be a pervading incertitude as to what Mr. McCulloch will do in regard to contraction of the currency. He is pledged to do something in this direction at the earliest possible moment. His paying off of the temporary deposits removes the chief obstacle in his path. Every one is now anxious to know what course he will adopt, and to measure, in anticipation, the force and direction in which it will move the money market. It is generally believed that he will put the new and long-talked-of 5 per cent loan on the market at no distant day, and it is thought if the present condition of things last the loan will move successfully and be readily taken at par.

—We copy the following, in reference to government bonds, from Thompson's Bank Note Reporter:

"As our bonds rise in the European markets, where they are sold for specie or its equivalent at about 75 cents on the dollar, the financial policy of our people and Government should be to lower the price of gold here, so as to meet the rise of our bonds there. In this way we should approximate to a specie standard as the credit of our country gained ground in Europe. But it appears to subserve the interests of bond and gold speculators to advance the price of our bonds here as they rise abroad, and to hold gold up to the price it was when our credit was down in Europe—some 3 to 10 per cent below what it now is. This state of the market here and abroad can be accounted only on the theory that speculators make it so for their private interests. Supposing our bonds should rise to par in Europe, then, to carry out the practice of our speculators, we should put them up to 147@148 here, and still, as a matter of course, keep gold equally high.

"How long the Secretary of the Treasury will suffer this peculiar state of financiering to prosper is a question valuable to know. He can in one way at least put a stop to it: he can take in currency, and cause it to appreciate as compared with gold. Having paid off some $100,000,000 of short debt, he is permitted by the law to sell an equal amount of long bonds and take back the currency paid out for the short debt. This would work beneficially in tightening the money or currency market, in stopping speculation, in lessening imports, and in augmenting our exports; and still no danger need be entertained that a panic would be created, for when our 7-30s should fall to par, the accumulation of currency could be used in buying them up.

"With the inauguration of such a financial system, gold would be sure to come down as our stocks advanced in Europe.

"The idea that the people will fund their Seven Thirties into Five Twenties with each are at par as appears to us to be absurd. The only positive fact growing out of the high price of these securities, when graded by currency, is the holding of gold up also. Incidentally, this unnatural scale of prices of securities and gold is working out a bad foundation for the future. It stimulates an expansion of the credit system. It stimulates importations. It stimulates the withholding of the staple from the markets, and consequently it advances prices in all directions.

"The expansionists, the paper money admirers, and the speculators for a rise have things just at present all their own way.

"All of us who thought Mr. Secretary McCulloch in dead earnest when he made his Fort Wayne speech, almost a year ago, are still looking for something to turn up in the direction he took on that occasion. We reprint one extract from that carefully prepared production:

"The present inconvertible currency of the United States was a necessity of the war; but now that the war has ceased, and the Government ought not longer to be a borrower, this currency should be brought up to the specie standard, and I see no way of doing this but by withdrawing a portion of it from circulation. I have no faith, etc. in a prosperity which is the effect of a depreciated currency, nor can I see any safe path for us to tread but that which leads to specie payment. The extreme high prices which now prevail in the United States are an unerring indication that the business of the country is in an unhealthy condition. We are measuring values by a false standard. We have a circulating medium altogether larger than is needed for legitimate business; the excess is used in speculations. The United States are to-day the best market in the world for foreigners to sell in, and among the poorest to buy in. The consequence is that Europe is selling us more than she buys of us (including our securities, which ought not to go abroad), and there is a debt rolling up against us that must be settled in part at least with coin. The longer the inflation continues the more difficult will be for us to get back to the solid ground of specie payments."

—A week ago (says the Philadelphia Ledger) we alluded to the statement made by certain "bear" operators in Government loans, to the effect that the Secretary of the Treasury does not consider the government bound to redeem the Five Twenty bonds in gold under the law creating them, and that he would be disposed to act according to the letter of the law. We then copied from a letter written by Secretary Chase, at the time the loan was put on the market, in which he said nothing but coin payments, for both principal and interest of the Five Twenty loan, was ever contemplated, and every Secretary of the Treasury from that time to the present has so treated them, paying the interest regularly in coin, and on every occasion in all official papers since, when allusion has been made to them, they have been considered as payable in coin. Further than this, we have the direct and positive declaration of Secretary McCulloch that he now and ever has esteemed them as not only gold-bearing bonds, but redeemable in gold. Such being the case, the attempt last week of a New York banking house to foist through one of its circulars, intended for the foreign market, a contrary opinion, is most reprehensible.

—The advices from London last evening via the Cable, state that the Bank of England has reduced the rate of discount from seven to six per cent. This may be clearly taken as an index of renewed financial confidence, and a gradual improvement in monetary matters. This reduction in the Bank rate is doubtless predicated on the prompt payment of the India cotton bills, concerning which great anxiety was felt in financial circles previous to their maturity. This action of the Bank cannot fail to stimulate business, which has been languishing in all departments, and a further increase in Five Twenties and other American securities may be speedily looked for.

—The New York Journal of Commerce of Wednesday says: "We do not think that there is as large a private balance now due to Europe from our merchants as is usual at this season, remittances having been made more freely; and it is quite possible that if produce and five-twenties both go forward freely, some gold may be returned to New York. But we do not believe in any large shipments of coin, since a movement in London for that purpose would start a first class panic in "the world's metropolis," and upset the arrangements by which it was to be effected.

PETROLEUM IN LIVERPOOL.

LIVERPOOL, August 17.—The report of a large quantity having been consumed by the fire at Antwerp, caused more activity in the market early in the week, and a considerable business was done at 1s 8d@1s 9d per gallon for refined on the spot, and at 1s 10d@2s for forward monthly deliveries, but the arrival of two cargoes at this port, and report of free shipments at New York and Philadelphia have caused the market to close quiet and rather easier.

New York Iron Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—There is but a moderate demand for Scotch pig, and the market is quiet but steady at previous rates; the sales are 250 tons Glengarnock at $46 to 47 ex ship; and some 300 do in lots at $47 for Eglinton from yard. American is still offered sparingly and held at full prices; the sales are 100 tons No. 1 ex part $50; 1000 do No. 2 at Po'keepsie, $45@46; and 500 do No. 2 common Crane, part $43 cash. Of other kinds we notice 300 tons old rails at $43 from the wharf. From store, the demand is light, and prices are hardly sustained.—Com. List.

Philadelphia Iron Market.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 1.—Pig metal is more inquired after at full rates. Sales 350 tons No. 1 Anthracite at $47@48 and No. 2 at $46 per ton. Scotch pig moves slowly at $50. Blooms are unchanged. We quote charcoal at $90@100 Manufactured iron is not much inquired after but holders are firm in their views.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
SATURDAY, September 1, 1866. }

The produce markets have been moderately active during the past week, and the receipts of Grain and Flour have been rather larger than usual. In Provisions, there is less activity, though there is a fair jobbing demand and prices are well sustained, and the same remarks will apply to Groceries. Flour is steady, Wheat firm, and Oats dull and lower. As a general thing, however, the fluctuations in values have been unimportant, either one way or the other.

GRAIN—Wheat is firm and in rather light supply; Prime No. 1 Spring is selling at $2,30 to 2,35. Oats—the supply is largely in excess of the demand and prices are barely sustained; sale of 1 car at 40; 1 do at 41; and 1 do at 42—an outside figure. Corn is more active but unchanged; sales 3 cars shelled at 75; 2 do do at 79—delivered; and 2 cars, in ears, at 81@82. Sales of 1 car Western Rye at 95, and 180 bush old crop Spring Barley at 90.

FLOUR—Is steady with a demand fully up to the supply, and while the market is reported firm, prices remain unchanged. We continue to quote at $11 to 11,50 for Spring Wheat; and $12,50 to $13 for Winter. Sale of 100 bbls "Battle" brand, at $11,40. Rye Flour is selling at $6,50. Sale 100 bushels prime fresh ground Cornmeal at 95.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet but steady, with a fair jobbing demand at 17½@17¾ for Shoulders; 19½@20 for Ribbed Sides; 23 to 23¼ for Plain Hams, and 25@26 for Sugar Cured Hams. Prime kettle rendered Lard is selling at 22 to 22¼, and Dried Beef at 27 to 27½. Mess Pork is firm at $33,50.

APPLES—The demand was much better to-day, and as the supply is somewhat reduced, prices generally ruled a shade higher. We quote at $2 to $3 per bbl.

BUTTER—The market is steady with a demand about equal to the supply but unchanged. Sales of 8 kegs packed at 25; 6 crocks prime at 28, and 4 firkins do at 30.

EGGS—In good demand, and fresh packed sell readily at 20 to 21. Stock light and arrivals limited.

OIL—No. 1 Lard Oil is quoted at $1,70 to $1,72, and No. 2 do at $1,45.

CHEESE—Is firm but unchanged at 15 to 16 for Western Reserve; 16 to 17 for Hamburg, and 21 for York State Goshen.

SWEET POTATOES—Sales at 5½ per bbl.

PEACHES—Sales at $5 per box.

PIG LEAD—Sales at 12c.

LIME—Small sales at $2 per bbl.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
SATURDAY, Sept. 1, 1866 }

CRUDE—The market for Crude, comparatively speaking, has been dull and to some extent neglected throughout the past week, the demand on the spot as well as to arrive, being less active, and while the transactions in the aggregate have been unusually light, prices remain unchanged at 16 to 17, bbls returned, and 21 to 22 bbls included, and these may be regarded as the extremes of the market. We can report a small sale on the spot at 16½, 1200 bbls, in tank, on private terms, understood to be at 17; also, 500 bbls for October delivery, at 17. The stock of oil in this market at present, aside from that in the hands of speculators, is very much reduced, and our refiners generally, are averse to contracting for future delivery at present quotations. Our latest advices from Oil City report Crude less active and a shade lower, sales having been made on Friday at $5,25 per bbl.

REFINED—There is still some little inquiry for spot oil, but the demand for future delivery is very light, and, as compared with last week, concessions would have to be made in order to effect sales. Then, buyers took hold readily, at 38 cents on board cars here, while now 38 may be regarded as a fair quotation. We can report a sale of 500 bbls for September delivery in Philadelphia, at 45. Last week sales were made readily for October and November, and even December, and that, too, at good prices, while this week, it seemed difficult to find a buyer even at concessions. Free oil is dull but nominally unchanged.

RESIDUUM—There has been some considerable inquiry for this article during the past day or two, principally on eastern account. We have sales reported at $2,75 here, and are cognizant of offers to buy at $5,00 to $5,10, delivered in Philadelphia.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil reported to-day were as follows:

Jas. Wilkins	700	H. McKelvy	250
W. McCutcheon	100	Fisher & Bro	50
Brewer & Barker	55	Barbour & Co	[illegible]

Tide-Water Receipts.

The quantity of flour, wheat, corn and barley left at tidewater during the third week in August, in the years 1865 and 1866, was as follows:

	Flour.	Wheat.	Corn.	Barley.
1865	25,800	224,000	1,170,000	4,600
1866	4,900	67,000	1,227,000	17,200
	Dec. 21,000	Dec. 157,000	Inc. 57,000	Inc. 12,800

The aggregate quantity of the same articles left at tidewater from the commencement of navigation to the 22d of August, inclusive, during the years 1865 and 1866, was as follows:

	Flour.	Wheat.	Corn.	Barley.
1865	380,200	4,292,400	6,147,300	171,600
1866	125,800	1,500,700	11,659,100	141,600
	Dec. 255,600	Dec. 2,791,700	Inc. 5,511,800	Dec. 30,000

By reducing the wheat to flour, the quantity of the latter left at tidewater this year, compared with the corresponding period last year, shows a decrease of 767,540 bbls flour.

Speculators in Beef Cattle in New York.

As in former weeks, most of the droves which could change owners had done so, and not a few had passed through several hands. To instance a single drove, we will remark that the person who bought it of the graziers at the West, sold out at Buffalo to a party who concluded to make his commission at Albany, and after coming from there, they were wholesaled again, and then the retailers gave butchers a chance at them. If each each party made $5 per head on them, $20 were added to each bullock by way of commission alone, and this is one of the chief causes why cattle are so high, and why first owners do not always get their money back. True, the speculators sometimes come in for losses, but they are very apt to uphold each other so strongly as to secure their ends.—N. Y. Tribune.

Baltimore Cattle Market.

BALTIMORE, August 30.—Beef Cattle.—The offerings during the past week were 962 head, against 1154 head previous week. The supply of cattle this week show a great falling off of those in order, with but few that are good and fat. Prices to-day ranged as follows: Inferior cattle, $4,50@5, common $5,50@6,50, fair $6,75@7,50, good $7,75 to 8,50, and prime $8,75 to $9 per 100 lbs. The latter price was paid owing to the scarcity of fat cattle.

Sheep—Supply fair and prices firm; sales of fair quality at 5 cts, and prime at 6 cents per pound gross. Stock sheep are selling at $3,50 to $4 per head.

Hogs—Supply large and the market heavy; prices a shade lower than last week; sales at $15 to $15,50 per 100 lbs net.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Stock and Money Market.

NEW YORK, September 1.—The Commercial's money article says: The weakness in stocks continue. There is an evident disposition to realize among holders who bought heavily at the beginning of August for a rise, and the tendency is encouraged by parties who desire to buy up certain of the leading stocks. Governments are less active. There are orders for Five-twenties on foreign account upon the market, but they cannot be executed at the current price of bonds. The extreme ease in money continues, and call loans are most generally at 4 per cent., with exceptions at 5 per cent. The full effect of the redemption of certificates does not yet appear, as a large portion of the payments were made in checks, which have not yet been presented for payment. Discounts are quiet. The amount of paper at present offering is probably not more than one-third that of ordinary times, so completely has the war revolutionized financial affairs. Prime bills are current at 5@6 per cent. Gold has declined during the morning from 147 to 145¾, apparently under a feigned raid by the gold clique intended to draw out short loans made flat, probably for the purpose of encouraging such a movement. The decline being a forced one an upward reaction of 1½@2 per cent. was not improbable.

Foreign Exchange is without movement, rates are as follows: Sterling prime brokers at sixty days 109¾ to 109¾, do short 109¾ to 107¾, Paris long, 535½ to 533¾, short, 535 to 532½, Antwerp long, 535 to 540, Bremen, 76 to 77, Amsterdam, 39 to 39¾, Frankfort, 39 to 40, Hamburg, 35 to 36, Berlin and Cologne, 69¾ to 70¾. The Gold market has been heavy throughout the day, the opening price 147¼ was highest, the lowest point touched was 145¾ at 11:37 a. m., and the price at three this afternoon was 146¼. Government bonds are steady at about the quotations of the morning; holders are firm in their refusals to sell at the prices.

The Post's money article says: The loan market is unchanged; Stocks are irregular, Governments more firm; railroad shares opened weak, but closed with an upward tendency, after the Board, New York Central was quoted at 102¼, Erie, 72¾, Hudson, 118¾, Michigan Central, 123. Foreign Exchange dull and inactive. Total amount of specie taken out for Europe to-day, 205,294 dollars.

New York Market.

NEW YORK, September 1.—Cotton is dull and heavy, at 33@35c for middling. Flour higher, low grades dull and declining, while round and medium grades are scarce; extra round hoop Ohio, at $10,90, and $12 for trade brands, the market closing quiet. Whisky steady, at $2,35 in bond. Wheat very dull and 2@3c lower, at $1,85. Corn heavy and ½c lower, at 79c for interior; 80c for shipping mixed Western, and 80½@80¾c for high mixed nearly yellow. Oats active and 1@2c better, at 41@42c, and closing at 52@55c for Iowa. Coffee dull. Sugar more active; Cuba, at 11@12½c. Petroleum steady and quiet, at 27½c for crude, and 43@44½c for refined in bond. Wool without decided change. Pork opened firmer, but closed heavy, at $32,81@33, new mess closing at $32,87½ for regular; $30,50@31 for old mess, and $27@29,25 for prime. Also 2,250 bbls. of new mess for September, October and all the year, at sellers' option, at $32,12½@33,25. The total stock of old and new, September 1st, is 31,858 bbls. At the same date last month, 78,734 bbls; same date last year, 89,405 bbls. Beef steady; total stock of old and new, Sept. 1st, 11,250 pkgs. same date last month, 13,685 pkgs, and same date last year, 53,593 pkgs. Bacon quiet, 16c for Cumberland cut, and 17c for short ribbed. Cut Meats steady, at 19½@21½c for Hams. Lard dull, at 18½@20½c. Butter quiet, at 30@33c for Ohio, and 30@45c for State. Cheese dull and heavy, at 16@19½c.

New York Wholesale Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—The wholesale market during the past week has been fairly active and variable. The exports of flour from this port during the year ending Aug. 31st, were as follows: Flour, 586,112 bbls.; wheat, 1,228,533 bush., Corn, 15,310,777 bush. The stock of old and new pork in the packing yards of New York and Brooklyn, Sept. 1st, was as follows: 1866, 21,865, 149 clear bbls.; 1866, 58,128 bbls. mess; 1865, 61,659 thin mess; 1866, 261,863,817 bbls. prime mess; 1866, 914; 1865, 13,874 bbls. rumps; 1866, 12; 1865, 73 prime; 1866, 248; 1865, 1,599 rumps; 1866, 128; 1865, 368 refused mess, 1866, 10; 1865, 1,170, do. prime mess; 1866, 256; 1865, 615 refused prime; 1866, 274, 1865, 444 other refused; 1866, 163; 1865, 2,270 uninspected; 1866, 1,678; 1865, 5,967; totals, 1866, 61,858; 1865, 89,495. The following is the amount of old and new beef remaining in packing yards, Sept. 1st: Re-packed mess, 1866, 3,411; 1865, 23,875. Re-packed Chicago mess, 1866, 4,748, 1865, 2,125; Railroad beef, 1866, 16; 1865, 139; refused mess, 1866, 147; 1865, 451; other refused, 1866, 98, 1865, 46; tierces prime mess, 1866, 2,630; 1865, 713; country mess, 1866, 867; 1865, 6,039; country prime, 1865, 67; uninspected tierces, 1865, 51; uninspected barrels, 1866, 11; 1865, 936, totals, 1866, 11,266; 1865, 33,593.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede slowly at this point, with less than two feet in the channel by the pier marks last evening. The weather during the past two days has been warm and unsettled with occasional showers of rain. Business is virtually suspended at the main landing, and will remain so until we have a rise.

There has not been a single arrival since our last report, and the Forest for Parkersburg was the only departure. Notwithstanding she went out [illegible] she was hard aground on Glass House [illegible] evening.

The St. Louis Democrat, of [illegible], says:

There remains no doubt of [illegible] of Capt James McGinnis. He was [illegible] steamer Niles, which is on her way from [illegible] to the Upper Missouri. A dispatch states that he died on Wednesday morning at [illegible] o'clock, on board of the boat, his disease [illegible]. Capt. McGinnis was an old [illegible] engineer, had commanded several [illegible] adopted the profession of [illegible]. He was one of the most popular [illegible] knew, in any branch of river [illegible], and his death will be greatly regretted. He acquired property, and he leaves a family in this city.

Ham Rowe, one of the engineers of the W. R. Arthur, died a few days ago of cholera. He was twenty-five years of age, and was from Pittsburgh.

We extract the following from the Cincinnati Commercial of [illegible]:

Capt. J. F. Power, of the [illegible], arrived from St. Louis yesterday. [illegible] the Starlight laid up at St. Louis [illegible] will probably enter the St. Louis and Memphis Packet trade.......Captain Drinkwater, of the Evansville and Green river trade, is also in the city. This gentleman and Captain J. V. Throop and Captain Gus. Lemble return to Evansville to-day............Captain Robert Hamilton was among the Robert Moore's passengers last night, for Hanging Rock.............We hear that Capt. S. B. Hemstead, President of the Lawrence County Agricultural Association, during his sojourn at the Ohio White Sulphur Springs, purchased a blooded horse for $3,000, raised in Delaware County, which he will exhibit at the forthcoming fair at Hanging Rock..............Capt. Richard E. Burch, formerly of the United States Naval dispatch steamer, General Lyon, was in this city yesterday. The Captain is now engaged in the undertaking business, in Indianapolis, the firm being Long & Burch.

The St. Louis News, of Thursday, has the following:

The late epidemic, which during the past month has carried so many to that "bourne from which no traveler returns," has been somewhat heavy among the boating fraternity. As a class, the mortality among them has been greater than any other, which can be accounted for by the manner in which they are exposed, and the dangers which their mode of life places them. With them there is no day or night, but one continued labor from sun rise to sun rise, and in all kinds of weather, which naturally lays them more reliable to any prevailing epidemic or disease.

We have kept no exact record of the death of boatmen during the late epidemic, but the number published both here and in other places leaves no doubt but that their ranks have been considerably thinned.

Another death occurred yesterday by the fatal disease, J. H. Choak, a well-known mate on the Mississippi river.

DOLLAR SAVINGS BANK,

No. 65 Fourth Street,

CHARTERED IN 1855.

Open daily from 9 to 2 o'clock, also on Wednesday and Saturday evenings, from May 1st to November 1st, from 7 to 9 o'clock, and from November 1st to May 1st, from 6 to 8 o'clock.

Deposits received of all sums of not less than One Dollar, and a dividend of the profits declared twice a year, in June and December. Interest has been declared semi-annually in June and December since the Bank was organized, at the rate of six per cent. a year.

Interest, if not drawn out, is placed to the credit of the depositor as principal, and bears the same interest from the first days of June and December, compounding twice a year without troubling the depositor to call, or even to present his pass book. At this rate money will double in less than twelve years.

Books containing the Charter, By-Laws, Rules and Regulations, furnished gratis, on application at the office.

INSURE YOUR LIFE IN THE CHARTER OAK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF HARTFORD, CONN.

THE ONLY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY IN AMERICA that now makes and pays an Annual CASH DIVIDEND on the first and each subsequent payment of premium. Its CASH CAPITAL, an accumulation of $2,000,000, is securely invested in public stocks and mortgages of REAL ESTATE. It is now in its 16th year of business, and has paid to the widows and orphans of its members the sum of ONE MILLION DOLLARS. To this date not a single case of litigation has occurred, an evidence that liberality and fair dealing is a specialty with this Company.

The policies of this Company are not forfeited by reason of non-payment of premium after the second year. No payments required after ten years, but policies continue good through life.
